RECOMMENDATION: The Commission should direct the Chair to modify the contract of the Commission Attorney until December 31, 2016 and increase the compensation language to $35,000.

SUMMARY:
The Commission Attorney has a contract that expires on July 31, 2016. At the June 8 meeting of the Commission, the Commission voted to meet at some time August 6, 2016, and after the November election.

At the June 15 meeting, the Commission extended the term of the contract of the Commission Attorney until December 31, 2016.

The Commission should move to direct the Chair to extend the contract of Commission Attorney Rick Robertson until December 31, 2016, and increase the compensation language to $35,000.

BACKGROUND:
In January 2016, the Charter Review Commission created a subcommittee to hire Commission staff and find legal council. The Commission negotiated a contract with Rick Robertson from March 1, 2016, through July 31, 2016, for an amount not to exceed $30,000. The contract was approved by the county council on April 18, 2016.

At the June 15 meeting, the Commission extended the term of the contract of the Commission Attorney until December 31, 2016. At the time, the Attorney expressed that there were sufficient funds in the contract. After reviewing time sheets for June, the Attorney communicated with Commission staff that reviewing and preparing drafts ballot language for the public hearing took more time than previously estimated. Staff now recommends that the Commission increase the compensation language in Mr. Robertson’s contract to $35,000.

Compensation for Mr. Robertson is hourly.

Mr. Robertson will be in attendance at the June 15 meeting to answer additional questions about their contracts.

ALTERNATIVES:
The Commission may delay a vote to a subsequent meeting.

((Section 11.40 Budget

The budget for 2007 which is in effect when this amended charter takes effect, shall remain effective until revised.))

((Section 11.70 Effective Date

This amended charter shall take effect January 1, 2007. The term

RECOMMENDATION: The Commission should review proposed amendments to the Charter for twelve active proposals.

SUMMARY: The Commission should review the draft ballot language for the active proposals before the Charter Review Commission.

On June 22, the Commission held a public hearing on twelve proposals to amend the Charter. Since the hearing, the Commission’s Attorney made minor edits to the proposals. The Commission previously voted to conduct an additional meeting or meetings after August 6 and after the November 2016 election.

At this meeting, Commissioners may take action on each of the twelve proposals. Options include (a) adopting proposed amendments (as presented or amended) for filing with County Council, (b) deferring action on proposed amendments, and (c) withdrawing proposed amendments from active consideration. The staff recommended form of the motion to submit a proposal to the voters is below:

“I move that the Charter Review Commission approve the proposed amendments set out in the proposition titled "__________________" identified as proposal number 2016- ___ for submission to the voters at the November 2016 general election, with a final proposition number to be assigned by the Commission, and that the Chair be authorized to file the proposed amendments with the County Council pursuant to Charter Section 8.60.”

BACKGROUND: Each proposal under consideration received at least eight votes from Commissioners to draft ballot language. On June 15, the Commission voted to send ballot language to a public hearing on June 22, 2016.

Staff Amendments since June 15

The Commission’s Attorney reviewed each proposal between June 15 and the June 29, 2016, meetings. Included in the versions of the ballot language in this packet are a number of non-substantive changes in the final versions of some proposals. The changes are outlined below:
Commissioners may vote to further amend the language or ballot title of each proposal.

Transition Language

Each proposal contains language to repeal sections 11.40 and 11.70 of the Charter. Both provisions are part of the transition section of the Charter. The proposals that do add new transitional provisions, Increasing Number of County Councilmembers (Proposal 2016-14) and Providing for Elections in Even-Numbered Years (Proposal 2016-38), contain transitional provisions that automatically expire.

Each proposal is written assuming that all twelve proposals are on the November 2016 ballot. If the Commission does not submit a voter for consideration on the November 2016, in certain instances the Commission Attorney is prepared to suggest amendments reflecting the Commission’s actions.

Numbering

If the Commission does submit proposals to the voters, the Commission should move to number the proposals to submit to the County Council and County Auditor. This numbering would affect the order in which the proposed amendments would appear on the November 2016 ballot.

Cover Letter

Attached to this document is a draft version of a cover letter to the County Council and County Auditor reflecting the actions the Commission may take to submit proposals to the voters at the November 2016 election. If the Commission does submit proposals to the voters, the Commission should move to direct the Chair to submit the letter with the appropriate numbers included.
The Chair previously mentioned to the Commission that a more complete transmittal letter would be drafted over the summer for potential adoption by the Commission at a subsequent meeting.
