Merry Christmas from the Reardon family

As we approach December 25th, I want to wish all of you who celebrate Christmas a very merry and happy holiday.

There is no more magical time of year. Everywhere we go, we see the stars in children’s eyes and the smiles on their parents’ faces as little ones stand in awe of the decorations, lights and festivities.

It is this spirit that should encourage us to reach out to those who are less fortunate. Each of us can do our part to make sure struggling families across Snohomish County experience the meaning of the holiday as well.

It doesn’t take much to lend a hand to the many in need: volunteering, modest financial donations, and sometimes even something as simple as a smile can change a person’s life.

Giving is healthy and helpful, not just for the recipient but also the donor.

Christmas is a beautiful time of the year. I pray that each of you has a safe and joyful holiday filled with love and happiness.

Kate, Madeline, Jack and I wish you all a very Merry Christmas.
