Snohomish County Public Works Offices Closed June 19 and 20 in Observance of Juneteenth Holiday

Solid Waste Household Hazardous Waste facility and all drop boxes closed June 19, transfer stations to remain open both days

EVERETT, Wash., June 8, 2022 – Snohomish County Public Works offices will be closed on Monday, June 20 in observance of the Juneteenth National Independence Day holiday celebrated on June 19. This will be the first year of the federal holiday’s observance in Snohomish County. The closure includes offices which are normally open to the public at the Snohomish County campus in downtown Everett.

All three drop boxes in east county and the Household Hazardous Waste facility in Everett will be closed on June 19. However, all Snohomish County Solid Waste transfer stations will remain open and on normal operating schedules on June 19 and 20.
