Snohomish County Historic Preservation Commission Grant Open for Applications

Grant for nonprofits and public agencies to help preserve local history open until January 16, 2023

SNOHOMISH COUNTY, Wash., November 29, 2022 – The 2023 Snohomish County Historic Preservation Commission Grant Program is now open for applications! The Snohomish County Historic Preservation Commission Grant Program was started in 2009 with the purpose of funding and promoting historic preservation projects across the county to educate residents on the past.

Applications can be submitted for any of four categories:

- Public Programming
- Capital Improvements & Equipment
- Collections Management
- Professional Development.

Eligible applicants include Snohomish County based non-profit cultural organizations and public agencies that provide heritage services to the public. All proposed projects must have a clear heritage focus that relates to an aspect of Snohomish County history. Past grants have been used to renovate historical buildings, create museum exhibits, digitize historical records and develop educational tools. All applications must be complete and submitted for review by January 16, 2023.

For more information or to apply, visit the website: <https://www.snocohistoric.com/> or contact Gretchen Kaehler at Gretchen.kaehler@co.snohomish.wa.us.
