Family Law Domestic Motions Dept 1C/1D: LIMIT 16 - Confirmation required. All matters will be heard with oral argument unless noted by the Commissioner to be on pleadings. Proposed orders are to be submitted with working copies.	Protection Orders: Parties should appear in person whenever possible. Working copies may be delivered at any time before the hearing but earlier submission will ensure they are received in time for the judicial officer to review them.	Guardianship and Probate: LIMIT 14 - All hearings related to adult guardianship cases will be heard on this calendar. For cases under RCW 11.130 Article 2, use the Minor Guardianship Calendar. All non-TEDRA probate motions will be heard on this calendar.
GAL Compliance: Matters assigned to calendar are court confirmed. Parties out of compliance with the requirements of the Supplemental Order Appointing must attend the hearing. Parties in compliance need not attend.	Ex Parte: Entry of family law final orders require in-person testimony. Declarations in lieu of testimony cannot be used. Matters are heard on a first-come, first served basis.	Civil Motions: All matters will be heard with oral argument unless noted by the Commissioner to be heard by Zoom. Other restrictions apply to unlawful detainer motions and restoration of firearms. Confirmation still required.
Pro Se Dissolutions: Agreed matters and default orders only. Confirmation not required. Written Testimony required as orders are reviewed in chambers. Parties do not appear for this calendar.	Interpreter Calendars: LIMIT 7 - Confirmations required except for protection order cases.	State Paternity: Set only by the prosecutor.
	Minor Guardianship: LIMIT 8 - All hearings in regular and emergency minor guardianship cases will be heard on this calendar. Hearings require confirmation unless court confirmed.	Special Sets: Set by Commissioner only
