Snohomish County Medical Examiner Case # 15SN0187
Mill Creek Police Department Case # 15-0037

On January 12, 2015, a passerby discovered partially skeletonized remains in a shed in the 17512 block of the Bothell Everett Highway. The remains are a black male, 50 – 65 years old, about 5’9” tall. He went by Jerry Diggs or Jerry Deggs and gave a date of birth of 12/31/1949. He told people that he was from the East Coast and had gotten a head injury when he was struck in the head as a bank guard during a bank robbery. He was wearing tan Banana Republic pants, wool socks, a “Rodda Paints” black turtleneck t-shirt and a tan plaid flannel Eddie Bauer long sleeve shirt. *This drawing is by a forensic artist and is an interpretation of what this person may look like or may look similar to.
