

Music on Plaza this Wednesday: Jupe Jupe

With waves of haunting synthesizers, crooning vocals, jagged guitars, and pulsating beats, Jupe Jupe creates pop music that is sure to get you movin'. Come to the county plaza this Wednesday, July 27, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. to enjoy Jupe Jupe live.

The Seattle quartet brings a darkly cinematic atmosphere to its three releases, "Invaders," "Reduction in Drag," and "Crooked Kisses"--creating infectious tracks influenced by British new wave, 60s European spy films, and lonely, ghost-town Americana. When you have some free time, check them out at www.jupejupemusic.com.

Grab a burger from the Xfiniti Arena Grill, a foot-long from Red Rock Subs, hotdogs from Big Dogs, stuffed hoagies from Stickit Stuffit Food Truck, or pulled pork from the Plaza Café. New arts and crafts vendors will bring clothing, jewelry, and essential oils and soaps.

Musical performances every Wednesday from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. through August 31 on the Snohomish County Campus Plaza:

- 7/27 Jupe Jupe, New Wave
- 8/3 The Warren G. Hardings, Americana Roots
- 8/10 Roemen and the Whereabouts, Retro Soul
- 8/17 Country Lips, Classic Country
- 8/24 Rabbit Wilde, Americana Folk/Pop
- 8/31 Michelle Taylor, Rockin' Blues
