

Media Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: January 25, 2018

Contact: Sergeant Josh McClure (Edmonds Police) SMART PIO, 206-786-9101

SMART Investigators continue efforts into March 21st incident.

Audio from calls to 911 and deputy's radio traffic released

Snohomish, Wash. –More information is being learned about the circumstances that led Snohomish County deputies to be dispatched to a domestic disturbance at a home in the Echo Lake neighborhood on the evening of March 21st. As part of that investigation audio from two calls made to 911 and communications between dispatch and responding officers are being released.

The involved officers remain on paid administrative leave. Investigators from the SMART team will interview them as part of the investigation.

The Snohomish County Medical Examiner has identified the deceased male as Alexander Dold. The cause and manner of death will be released once toxicology results are received.

The incident remains under investigation.

Below are two links for audio of calls placed to 911 regarding this incident as well as a link for audio between dispatch and the deputies who responded to the call.

Click link to download:

911 call #1

911 Call #2

Dispatch Audio

###