

Bus Pullouts to Be Added on Cathcart Way

About the Project

Snohomish County Public Works is constructing four new bus pullouts (two in each direction) on Cathcart Way to serve Community Transit's Route 109. Two will be constructed at Cathcart Way and Snohomish-Cascade Drive and two will be built at Cathcart Way and Puget Park Drive.

The existing curb, gutter and sidewalk will be removed and new, wider pavement will be added to create the bus pullouts. New curb, gutter and sidewalk will also be constructed. Sections of rock wall will be used where needed.

Timeline

Construction is anticipated to begin in mid-April and be completed in July. Each bus pullout should take about two weeks to construct.

Road Impacts

During construction there will be single-lane closures during working hours. Pedestrian access will be limited, however pedestrian detour routes will be posted, if they are needed.

About Route 109

Community Transit's Route 109 operates between Ash Way Park & Ride and Lake Stevens. Service at the four new bus stops on Cathcart Way is anticipated to begin shortly after the construction is completed.
