NOTICE OF DETERMINATION OF SIGNIFICANCE AND REQUEST FOR COMMENTS ON SCOPE OF EIS

File Name: Point Wells Development

File Number: 11-101457-LU

Description: Snohomish County is reviewing an application for the proposed Point Wells mixed use redevelopment project consisting of residential, commercial, mixed use and public services. The project site is approximately 61 acres with approximately 16 acres of tidelands and 45 acres of upland areas. Currently, the site serves as a marine fuel terminal, petroleum storage facility, and asphalt batching plant. The project is likely to be constructed in four phases. At build out, the project will consist of 47 buildings containing 3,081 dwelling units and approximately 32,000 square feet (SF) of commercial space (with floor area for on-site police and fire service); and approximately 94,000 SF of retail space. The tallest proposed building would be approximately 175 to 180 feet tall. The project would include recreational activity areas, passive open space, public dock and associated infrastructure..

Cleanup of the project site will be required for the Point Wells project. Site cleanup will be reviewed and conducted by the Washington State Department of Ecology (Ecology). Ecology will be SEPA lead agency for the site cleanup project.

Location: Property is located at the extreme southwest part of Snohomish County adjacent to the Town of Woodway and the City of Shoreline; at the northwest terminus of Richmond Beach Drive.

To comment on a project:

- Submit written comments to PDS at the address below. All comments received prior to issuance of a department decision or recommendation will be reviewed. To ensure that comments are addressed in the decision or recommendation, they should be received by PDS before the end of the published comment period.
- Comments on a project scheduled for a hearing before the hearing examiner, may be made by submitting them to PDS prior to the open record hearing.
- PDS only publishes the decisions that are required by Snohomish County Code. Persons will receive notice of all decisions that they have submitted written comment on, regardless of whether or not they are published.
- You may become a party of record for a project by: 1. submitting original written comments to the county prior to the hearing, 2. testifying at the hearing or 3. entering your name on a sign-up register at the hearing. NOTE: only parties of record may subsequently appeal the hearing examiner's decision or provide written or oral arguments to the county council if such an appeal is filed.

To appeal a decision:

- Department decisions (including SEPA threshold determinations): submit a written appeal and the $500 filing fee to PDS prior to the close of the appeal period. Refer to SCC 30.71.050(5) for details on what must be included in a written appeal.
- A SEPA appeal also requires that an affidavit or declaration be filed with the hearing examiner within seven days of filing the appeal, pursuant to SCC 30.61.305(1).
- Hearing examiner decisions issued after a public hearing are appealable as described in the examiner's decision. Notice of those decisions is not published. You must have submitted written comments to PDS or written or oral comments at the public hearing in order to appeal a hearing examiner's decision.
