Let’s Get Started!
Each individual’s vision of a meaningful employment/career path is unique to their passion, skill set, and life experience.

This book is designed to help you think about questions to ask and explore options when developing employment goals. Every step you take to increase your experiences, meet new people and develop new skills will take you a step closer to reaching your goals.

THINGS TO CONSIDER

• What are my current interests and skills and who are the employers in my community who could use someone with my skill set.
• What are some things that I can do today to try new things and increase my work skills and interests?
• How can I meet new people and become more connected to my community. (Jobs are often found by who we know)
• What are my personal goals and how much money will I want to earn to help me reach my goals?
• What support is available to help me along the way? What resources are available?

STARTING ON YOUR PATH

Employment skills are important for any job and you can be building these throughout your life and at any age. Here are a few tips to prepare for employment success:

• Enlist friends, relatives and others to help with your job search.
• Contact employers and develop connections in your community related to your interests and employment goals.
• Volunteer and participate in community activities that build your work skills.
• Obtain as much paid and unpaid work experience as you can.
• Identify your job skills, interests and preferences.
• Practice job interviewing.
• Do chores at home.
• Talk to others you know about their jobs.

TRANSPORTATION IS KEY TO EMPLOYMENT

How do I currently get around to the places I need or want to go?
Do I know how to get around in my community?
Do I want to learn how to drive, ride the bus or locate a carpooling option?

Transportation is critical for getting a job and connecting to your community

- If you plan to utilize public transportation, or live close to a bus line, keep in mind that bus routes may change if ridership is low. Participate in community meetings when they discuss cutting transportation services that may affect you.

- If you require personal care assistance (PCA), obtain a regional reduced fare or Orca card with the letters PCA written on it. It will allow your personal care assistant to accompany you free of charge.

- Service animals are allowed on public transportation.

- Swift is Community Transit's Rapid Bus Service. It serves a 17-mile route between Everett and Shoreline designed to move people quickly, whether you are traveling from Everett to Lynnwood, Edmonds to Shoreline or anywhere in between.

- A Regional Reduced Fare Permit is available for seniors and individuals with disabilities to pay lower fares on Community Transit, Everett Transit, King County Metro, Sound Transit, Pierce Transit, and Washington State Ferries. To obtain the reduced fare permit you will need to provide proof of your disability, forms signed by your doctor, photo ID and a fee.

Don’t let Social Security benefits be a barrier to employment!
Applying for SSI is a two part process, part online and part in the local office.
Be prepared to give medical, work, and school information, if applicable.

1. Go to www.ssa.gov. (if you wish to gather information before you begin, see #9 below)
2. Click on the colorful picture titled “Disability” located at the top of the main page.
3. Click the blue bar titled “Apply for Disability” or “Return to Saved…” depending on your situation.
4. If applying for first time, read the Terms of Service, click you “understand” and click “next.”
5. Click on “Apply for Disability” or “Return to a Saved Application” depending on your situation.
6. Click on “Start a New Application” or “Return…” and follow next steps
7. Here is where you will start the report. Start answering the questions. You can also save your report and come back to it.
8. If you wish to apply for SSI, there will be a box for you to check at the end of the application.

9. If you wish to gather information before you start, type in “Adult Disability Starter Kit” or “Child Disability Starter Kit” for children under the age of 18 in the search box above the dark blue tabs on the home page at www.ssa.gov. Click on the top link, “Adult [or Child] Disability Starter Kit.” This takes you to a Fact Sheet, a Checklist, and a Worksheet. The checklist and worksheet are the tools that will help you gather information that you will need to fill in the Adult Disability Report (or Child Disability Report). Once you have gathered the information, go ahead and start the report/application (follow steps 2-7 above).

10. If you do not wish to do an online application, you can call 1-800-772-1213 to make an appointment at your local office. Please keep in mind a local appointment will take a bit longer if you do not do the online piece first. They will just need to collect the information in person.

11. After you have completed the report, call SSA at 1-800-772-1213 to make an appointment to complete the application at the local office. You should also be prompted to click that you would like to apply for SSI. Indicate this on the report and SSA will contact you.

Remember:

1. Only about 20-25% of folks get in the first time. Appeal, appeal, appeal! And do it within 60 days. (follow the instructions in the denial letter)

2. Go into the local office and bring the person applying with you. When you reach Step 8, SSA may recommend a phone interview. Decline this and request a local meeting at the local office. It is a good thing for them to meet the individual face to face.

3. If you do not have information, do not worry. SSA will figure out what they need and try to find the information themselves. Just do what you can.

4. If applying online is not possible, you can always call 1-800-722-1213 to make an appointment at your local office and do the whole application in person.
STEP 4
REQUEST A REFERRAL TO CAREER PATH SERVICES

If you need help getting and keeping a job, you must be eligible for DDA and over the age of 21 to receive long-term Career Path Services.

STEP 5
INTERVIEW AND CHOOSE A CAREER PATH PROVIDER

Providers are qualified agencies that contract directly with Snohomish County to provide Career Path Services (Employment and Community Inclusion). Providers have expertise in supporting individuals with employment goals.

As you interview different providers, share your ideas and ask how they can support you to achieve your career path goal. The interviews can be done by email, phone or a sit down meeting depending on your preference and schedule. Here are some sample questions to help you get started with the interview process:

- I am interested in_______? Do you have connections in this area? How would you assist me?
- I have limited work experience and I am not sure what I want to do. How would you help me explore my options?
- What will be MY role in finding a job? What is YOUR role?
- How will you help me develop and monitor my Career Path Service Plan?
- Do you support other folks in my community? What kind of connections do you have with companies in the area in which I live?
- How can you assist me with transportation?
- How many people does your agency serve? How many other people will my job coach be supporting? How often can I expect to see my job coach?
- Will the job developer also provide job training or will another individual be hired to do so (i.e., job coach, natural supports, co-worker trainer)?
- How will you keep communication open with me, my parents, guardians, and significant others? (Email, phone, or written)
- How would you help me if I have special needs such as: medication, personal care, cultural diversity, behavior or communication challenges, or safety issues?
Before you can make decisions about what job or career you want in adult life, you must learn about yourself and your interests. No one knows you and your interests better than you and those closest to you. You can begin this process by creating a One Page Profile. This profile is a short introduction about you which captures key information on a single page.

Now it’s your turn! Below is a template for you to create your own One Page Profile. When answering these questions be sure to include enough detail that someone who has never met you will have good idea of who you are and understand what matters the most to you.

MY ONE PAGE PROFILE

What People like and admire about me (list your positive strengths, talents and qualities. Ask family, friends or others who know you well for input, or do this exercise as a group activity).

What’s Important to me (list the things about your life that you value and are important to you, including people, places, interests, passions, hobbies, possessions, rituals, and routines).

How best to support me (list the support you need to create the best environment and outcomes in your life).
PERSON CENTERED PLANNING

Figuring out how to reach career goals and achieve successful employment can be challenging. The next step is to work closely with a Planning Facilitator. The planner will design an individual plan to help you get the type of employment you want. (Planning facilitators are available based on funding and DDA eligibility) Here is what to expect and specific steps when meeting with the planner:

Session 1: An initial listening meeting will identify your needs, clarify the process, and answer questions. Bring your own One Page Profile to get the conversation started! In this “meet and greet” we encourage you to identify people you want to include in the process. This session can take place in the home.

Session 2: A gathering of family and friends to explore personal stories/experiences, identify skills, interests and support needs. This session can take place in the home.

Session 3: A gathering of family and system professionals will expand on information collected from session 2 and will explore the dream and develop strategies to make your career goals come true. A written plan will be the end result to assist you with your desired outcomes. Share the plan with others that can help you.

Session 4: A follow up meeting with the planning team within 1 to 6 months will ensure your future is heading in the right direction.

Contact Your DDA Case Manager
(By Referral Only)
800-788-2053

Transition Age Youth (18-21) contact Transition Coordinator
425-388-7476
STEP 7
MANAGE YOUR CAREER PATH SERVICE

1. Keep Communication open with your provider

Your provider may not know you have a concern if you don’t tell them. Start with the person who works directly with you and if that doesn’t help, contact that person’s supervisor. Ask for a meeting if necessary. Others that can help you include: DDA Case Manager, DVR Counselor or Transition Coordinator

2. Review Your Plan

Look at your career path goal and listed steps to help you achieve your goal. Discuss updates or concerns with your provider. Request that they be included in your DDA annual assessments.

3. Stay in the Loop

Providers are required to document the services you receive in case notes and progress reports. You can request copies of these monthly updates or check in calls.

4. You Direct Your Services

You are in the driver’s seat! If you have been unsuccessful finding a solution with your current provider you may request a new provider. Be sure to determine reason why changing providers is necessary. Contact your DDA Case Manager, DVR Counselor or Transition Coordinator to discuss your concerns.

When working with the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) it is recommended you choose a provider that is also contracted to provide employment services through DDA. You have the ability to change providers at any time.

Why does the Developmental Disabilities Administration require that individuals access Employment services before other Day Services? Washington State is an Employment First state that has adopted a Working Age Adult policy (DDA Policy 4.11) for individuals age 21 to 62. Employment is the most effective way we know to achieve the benefits outlined in Developmental Disabilities Administration Guiding Values, provide a pathway out of poverty and increase choice and inclusion. All individuals, regardless of support needs or disability, are given the opportunity to explore inclusive community options with paid employment as the priority outcome. The first nine months of employment services helps the individual understand community options and how to become a part of their local community.

Is there an expectation of how long it will take me to obtain paid employment? No, there is no time limit on how long you can be in Employment services without obtaining paid employment. However, it is expected that your provider develop an individualized employment plan. The provider will regularly communicate with you about progress and activities. Your progress will be evaluated every six months to ensure you are moving forward on your pathway to your employment goal.

What if I don’t know what kind of job I want? Your Employment provider is trained to help you identify areas of interest through a process of discovery where you are provided various opportunities in the community to see what you most enjoy or show interest in. In addition, they will seek input from those who know you best.
What activities are available to help me on my pathway to paid employment? Employment service activities will vary depending on what you need. The activities are individualized based on your interests, integrated with other individuals without disabilities in the community, and accessible by public transit or a reasonable commute from your home. The following activities are commonly used to assist individuals on their pathway to paid employment:

1. Vocational exploration and discovery to discover preferences, skills and abilities.
2. Community-Based Assessments opportunities to obtain experience to put on a resume.

What if I want additional work hours or a different job? Your employment plan has your desired employment goal identified in terms of work hours and type of job. Your plan will have strategies identified to achieve that goal. You need to communicate with your employment provider whenever you want a change in your employment goal whether it is additional work hours or a different job.

What if I don’t want to participate in Employment services? DDA also offers Community Inclusion (Access) which is available to individuals 62 years and older and individuals who have participated in nine months of Employment services and choose Community Inclusion services instead of continuing in Employment services. An Exception to Rule can be requested through your DDA case manager if you have not or do not want to participate in 9 months of employment services.

Can School to Work programs or other employment preparation count toward the 9 months? No, the nine months of employment services must be funded by DDA.

Can I have Community Inclusion (Access) and Employment services at the same time? No, but if you choose Community Inclusion after nine months of employment, you can choose to go back to Employment services at any time.

How many hours of support will I receive in Employment? Your monthly Employment service hours are determined by your annual assessment completed by your case manager from the Developmental Disabilities Administration. Monthly service hours range from 1-12, but additional hours may be approved once you become employed or while actively involved in job development.

Will I always have a staff person with me in Employment services? You will always have appropriate supports to participate safely in employment activities; however, your employment support staff may not always be present if there is not a need for support or you have developed natural supports in your work setting. The ideal outcome of the service is that you develop relationships with co-workers and/or your employer to help support you.

What other services are available to help me obtain employment? The Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) provides short-term services to assist individuals with disabilities to obtain jobs. DVR offers career counseling, assessment options, job development, and on-the-job training. DVR works in partnership with DDA to support Employment.
What are Community Inclusion services?
Community Inclusion is an individualized service that provides individuals with opportunities to engage in community-based activities that support socialization, education, recreation, and personal development for the purpose of building and strengthening relationships with others in the local community who are not paid to be with the person and learning, practicing, and applying skills that promote greater independence and inclusion in their community. It is provided by agencies contracted with the Counties.

Who is eligible for Community Inclusion services?
Community Inclusion is available to individuals 62 years and older. It is also available to individuals who have participated in nine months of Employment services and choose Community Inclusion services instead of continuing in Employment services. It is available for those individuals on the Basic Plus and Core Waivers and individuals in Skilled Nursing Facilities (PASRR). An Exception to Rule can be requested through your case manager if you have not or do not want to participate in 9 months of employment services.

Can I have Community Inclusion and Employment services at the same time?
No, but you can choose to go back to Employment services at any time.

How many hours of support will I receive in Community Inclusion?
Your monthly Community Inclusion service hours are determined by your annual assessment completed by your case manager from the Developmental Disabilities Administration. Monthly service hours range from 3-20.

What can I expect from my Community Inclusion service?
Your Community Inclusion provider will meet with you and through a process of Discovery and person-centered planning identify your individual interests to develop a Community Inclusion plan with strategies to access community opportunities consistent with your interests in your local community. The activities will be integrated and provide opportunities to contribute and develop relationships with people in your community who are not paid staff.

Will I always have a staff person with me in the community?
You will always have appropriate supports to participate safely in community activities; however, your Community Inclusion staff may not always be present. The ideal outcome of the service is that you develop relationships with other community members with similar interests who will support you in the activity so that the Community Inclusion staff can fade from that activity and look for additional opportunities for you to participate in community activities of interest.

What if I don’t know what I want to do in the community?
Your Community Inclusion provider is trained to help you identify areas of interest through a process of Discovery where you are provided various opportunities in the community to see what you most enjoy or show interest in. In addition, they will seek input from those who know you best.
What activities are available to participate in as part of Community Inclusion services?
Community activities are as varied as your interests (e.g., club memberships, volunteering, etc.) as long as they meet four simple criteria:

1. Individualized based on your interests
2. Integrated with other individuals without disabilities in the community
3. Activities that are typically experienced by the general public in your local community; accessible by public transit or a reasonable commute from your home
4. Ability to contribute and develop relationship with community members who are not paid staff.

What activities are NOT available to participate in as part of Community Inclusion Services?
Community Inclusion services cannot be used to support you in some community activities. These activities include: specialized and/or segregated activities with only individuals with disabilities, isolating activities with no opportunities to develop relationships with community members who are not paid staff, or activities that don’t occur in your local community.

Can Community Inclusion services be provided to more than one individual at a time?
Although Community Inclusion is an individualized service, it can be provided for 2 to 3 individuals at the same time; IF the activity is a shared interest of all participants and meets the guidelines of integrated setting, local community and ability to contribute and develop relationships with other individuals without disabilities in the community who are not paid staff.

What other services are available to help me access my community?
Community Engagement is a service similar to Community Inclusion but is only available to individuals on the Individual and Family Services (IFS) Waiver or individuals in Skilled Nursing Facilities (PASRR). It is provided by individual providers and or agencies contracted directly with the Developmental Disabilities Administration.

Community Guide is a short-term service intended to identify and connect you to resources in your local community. It is available to individuals on the Basic Plus, and CORE Waivers and individuals in Skilled Nursing Facilities (PASRR). It is provided by individual providers and or agencies contracted directly with the Developmental Disabilities Administration.

Respite can also be provided in the community. It may be available to individuals on the Individual and Family Services (IFS), Basic Plus and CORE Waivers. It is provided by individual providers and or agencies contracted directly with the Developmental Disabilities Administration.
