Snohomish County Council Holds Public Budget Forum

On Wednesday October 24th, 2018 at 10:30am and 6:30pm the Snohomish County Council will host, along with the County Executive's office, a Biennial Budget Forum and Public Hearing in the Jackson Board Room (3000 Rockefeller Ave. Everett, WA 98201; 8th floor of the Robert Drewel Building).

This Budget Forum is an opportunity for Snohomish County Citizens to speak to the Council about their budget priorities. Each budget Ordinance and motion will be read into the record and Council will receive public testimony regarding the 2019 budget. For more information visit our website here: <https://snohomishcountywa.gov/2288/Meetings-Webcasts>.

As always, the Council encourages the public to join us for this budget forum. If you are unable to join us, please consider sharing your opinions and concerns via email, which will be added to the official record. If you would like to submit your written comments please do so by sending them to contact.council@snoco.org. You may also send comment letters to the following:
