Snohomish County Council Reviews the Executive's 2019 Budget

The Snohomish County Council has begun the process of reviewing the County Executive's 2019 Recommended Budget. Over the course of the next two months Council will hold public meetings and budget forums to discuss and deliberate with county departments and work toward a sustainable 2019 budget.

The Council encourages the public to attend meetings when they are able to and to voice their thoughts and opinions during our public comment portion of the meetings.

On Monday October 15th, 2018 at 6:30pm, the Snohomish County Council will host a Citizen Budget Forum in the Jackson Board Room (3000 Rockefeller Ave., Everett, WA 98201; 8th floor of the Robert Drewel Building). From October 15th through October 18th the various Snohomish County departments will present to the Council their plans for the coming year, along with their needs for the budget. To find out the order of the presentations, and check for meeting times, keep an eye on our webpage as it will be updated when the schedule is set:

The Citizen Budget Forum is an opportunity for Snohomish County citizens to speak to the Council about their budget priorities. Council staff will lead a brief presentation explaining the breakdown of county dollars, after which the Council will listen to public comment. The Council understands that it can be difficult to make it to these meetings, especially the meetings that are scheduled for regular business hours. If you are unable to join us, please consider sharing your opinions and concerns via email, which will be added to the official record. If you would like to submit your written comments please do so by sending them to contact.council@snoco.org. You may also send comment letters to the following:
