Everett Courthouse Construction Requires Temporary Reassignment of Judge Bui's Caseload to South Division

Due to the courthouse construction in Everett, Judge Tam T. Bui and her caseload must be temporarily relocated to Department 2 at our South Division in Lynnwood (20520 68th Ave W, Lynnwood, WA 98036). This relocation will last for approximately one year and will begin Monday, April 1, 2019.

Judge Bui's calendars will shift as follows: jury trials will be held on alternating Wednesdays through Fridays; calendars that were formally heard on Thursday and Friday of those weeks will move to Monday and Tuesday. Judge Bui's non-trial weeks will not be adjusted. You can find her adjusted calendar here: <https://www.snohomishcountywa.gov/5165> under the District Court News section.

We are making every effort to make this transition as seamless as possible for court users and court staff. While we have tried to anticipate every contingency, it is possible that there may be some rough spots. Please be patient as we implement this temporary reassignment.

If you have questions or concerns, please contact the District Court Assistant Administrator, Marianne Boggie, at PH 425-388-3136 or email Marianne.Boggie@snoco.org.
