

Contact:

Matt Phelps
Communications Specialist II
Matt.Phelps@snoco.org
425-388-3126

Fay Lim
Communications Supervisor
Fay.Lim@snoco.org
425-388-6413

Snohomish County Public Works Employees to Share Expertise at Industry Conferences

Employees presenting at two different conferences on engineering and solid waste issues

EVERETT, Wash., Monday, June 17, 2019 – As experts in their respective fields, Snohomish County Public Works employees are sharing their knowledge with industry peers during three upcoming local conferences. Topics include a presentation on the Maple Rd and Ash Way Drainage and Intersection Improvements Project, the state of the recycling industry and the solid waste Request for Proposal (RFP) process.

Snohomish County Public Works Upcoming Presentations:

Maple Rd and Ash Way Drainage and Intersection Improvements Project

Date: June 18-20, 2019

Conference: 2019 Washington State Association of County Engineers

Presenters: Engineering Services Design Supervisor Sam Filetti and Construction Engineer Andy Lentz

Panel Discussion on Solid Waste and Recycling Issues

Date: June 25, 2019

Conference: The Washington Refuse and Recycling Association / Solid Waste Association of North America Evergreen Chapter, Joint Technical Session, The State of Recycling – 2019

Panelist: Snohomish County Solid Waste Director Matt Zybas

Solid Waste Procurement Processes – Case Study of the Snohomish County RFP Process

Date: Aug. 6, 2019

Conference: Solid Waste in Washington Seminar

Presenter: Snohomish County Solid Waste Director Matt Zybas

About Snohomish County Public Works

The Snohomish County Public Works Department constructs and maintains county roads; controls and manages surface water quantity, quality, and fish habitats; and oversees the recycling and disposal of solid waste. The department's main office is located at 3000 Rockefeller Ave., Everett, WA 98201. For more information about Snohomish County Public Works, visit www.snohomishcountywa.gov/PublicWorks.

###