Everything You Need to Know

MONROE, Wash., August 9, 2019 – The Evergreen State Fair invites you to explore and celebrate Snohomish County’s shared, rich agriculture heritage, delicious food and drink, entertainment, artisan goods, carnival rides and more! At the fair, you may find yourself a bee keeper, goat milker, expert ax thrower, soon-to-be urban farmer extraordinaire, champion pie eater, master of chicken agility, or soaring high above the fair on the ferris wheel. Enjoy the wonder of experiencing something new, the sweet nostalgia of revisiting old favorites and the beauty of sharing all of this in community. All are welcome to wonder and wander here.

2019 Fair Honoree: Don Ballard

4H Rabbit Superintendent, past Fair Advisory Board member, exhibitor, crochet prize winner, and fixture at the Fair for over 30 years. Don works tirelessly behind the scenes all year for the fair. During fair time, you'll see Don strolling around the grounds in shorts and rabbit ears with a smile on his face. More on Don HERE. (Don will be present at the 2pm Opening Day Ceremony)

2019 Centennial Farm Family: The Tillman Family

The Tillman Family from Arlington Heights began farming in Washington after WWI. Their dairy farm started with a bustling 30 cows all hand milked. Today, their dairy cows thrive on over 330 acres with an additional 600 acres of leased farm land. Don Tillman's farming philosophy: "It's a balancing act-cows feed the grass and the grass feeds the cows. As you get information you start to adapt the current farming to fit the needs. You can't chase every ideas or you will go in circles. Go ahead or you will get behind, there is no standing still!" More on The Tillman's HERE. (The Tillman Family will be present at the 2pm Opening Day Ceremony.)

What's New?

Concert Amenities

New this year! Beer and wine will be allowed in the grandstand section of the concert venue. There will be a family section for those who would like to sit in that section with no alcohol. All grandstand seats are festival seating and are only $20-30, including fair admission. Reserved VIP floor chairs and bleachers will have access to the beer and wine garden for the second year in a row. All tickets can be purchased at EvergreenFair.org.

TWO New Beer & Wine Gardens

In order to enhance the Fairgoer experience, beer and wine gardens will be available to guests 21+ every day of the Fair, including at concerts and Speedway events! New Beer & Wine Gardens by the Courtyard Stage and at the Arena during the Rodeo. Enjoy a corn dog with a beer to wash it down—just do it responsibly!

First Building Listed on Snohomish County Register of Historic Places

The Shannahan Cabin, a favorite for 50 years when it was relocated on the fairgrounds, will be awarded the first building to be listed on the Snohomish County Register of Historic Places with a Plaque Unveiling on August 22 at 11:30 a.m. in Frontierland. The Shannahan Cabin is a log cabin built by an early Snohomish County settler, Robert Shannahan. The cabin is representative of Snohomish County's pioneer heritage and is one of the only remaining intact pioneer cabins in the county that is accessible to the general public.

Back by Popular Demand

Maker's Market

The popular Maker's Market expanded and moved into the north section of the Grandstands. See local artisans at work making and selling one-of-a-kind art works and craft goods. Artists rotate throughout fair time.
