Weekly update for SMART Case #20-01

Snohomish County, Wash. – Detectives continue investigating the timeline of events that led to the incident in the 16900 block of Alder Way and how the 43 year-old male received his injuries. As part of the investigation, detectives have requested medical information and are waiting for the results.

The four involved deputies have returned to normal duties. The deputies have three years, two and a half years, two years, and 11 months of service with the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office.

All weekly updates for this case are posted on the SMART Investigations webpage.

The investigation is being conducted by the Snohomish County Multiple Agency Response Team \(SMART\). SMART is a team of investigators, evidence technicians, records specialist, and public information officers from various Snohomish County law enforcement agencies and Washington State Patrol, who respond to, and investigate, police use of force incidents. There are civilian community members that also serve on SMART per the Law Enforcement Training and Community Safety Act (LETSCA). When the SMART investigation is complete, results will be forwarded to the Snohomish County Prosecutor's Office for review.
