What’s a Super Voter?
Perhaps now more than ever, we see the impact government can have on our daily lives. Super Voters know that voting determines our future course as a community, state and nation.
Super Voters also know there’s more to voting than just filling out a ballot. By taking advantage of the tools and resources available to voters in Washington State, Super Voters are active participants in every step of the voting process.
Super Voters:
- Check their voter registration information, confirming it’s up-to-date
- Read the voters’ guide to learn about the issue and candidates that will be on their ballot
- Vote and sign their ballot envelope, following the ballot instructions to ensure their votes are counted
- Return their ballot early to beat the Election Day deadline, and
- Track their ballot and verify it’s received by the county.
So join the ranks of Super Voters. Visit snoco.org/elections to learn how to complete tasks and collect badges to share with friends.
Thank you for voting in the August 4 Primary!

Voting in Washington State

What does an elected official do?

Secretary of State

The Secretary of State is the state’s chief elections officer, chief corporation officer, and oversees the state Archives and Library. Primary functions include certifying election results, filing and verifying initiatives and referenda, publishing the state voters’ pamphlet, registering and licensing corporations, limited partnerships and trademarks, registering charitable organizations and collecting and preserving historical records of the state. The Secretary of State is second in line of succession for the Office of the Governor.

Treasurer

As the state’s fiscal officer, the state Treasurer’s principal duties are to manage and disperse all funds and accounts, be responsible for the safekeeping and interest on all state investments, account for and make payments of interest and principal on all state bonded indebtedness, and maintain a statewide revenue collection system for the purpose of expediting the deposit of state funds into the Treasury.

Auditor

The state Auditor works with more than 2,600 state and local governments, conducting audits and investigating fraud and abuse. The state Auditor conducts investigations of state employee whistleblower assertions about state agencies and also investigates reports of fraud, waste, and abuse of public funds received through its citizen hotline. Audit and investigation results are documented and reported to governments and the public.

Attorney General

The Attorney General serves as legal counsel to the Governor, members of the Legislature, state officials, and more than 230 state agencies, boards, commissions, colleges and universities. The office also represents administrative agencies and schools in court or administrative hearings. The Office of the Attorney General enforces consumer protection statutes and serves the public directly by providing information on consumer rights and fraudulent business practices.

Commissioner of Public Lands

The Commissioner of Public Lands is the head of the Department of Natural Resources, overseeing the management of 5 million acres of forest, agricultural, range, tidal, and shore lands of the state. Subject to proprietary policies established by the Board of Natural Resources, the Commissioner is responsible for the exercise of all duties and functions of the department.

Superintendent of Public Instruction

Superintendent of Public Instruction heads the state educational agency and is chief executive officer of the state Board of Education. The Superintendent is responsible for the administration of the state kindergarten through twelfth grade education program. Duties of the office include certifying teaching personnel, approval and accreditation of programs, and apportionment of state and local funds. The Superintendent also provides assistance to school districts’ school improvement areas.

Insurance Commissioner

The Office of the Insurance Commissioner regulates insurance companies doing business in Washington, licenses agents and brokers, reviews policies and rates, examines the operations and finances of insurers, and handles inquiries and complaints from the public.

State Senator

A Senator’s term is four years. The Senate is made up of 49 members, one from each legislative district in the state. One-half the membership of the Senate is up for election each even-numbered year. The Senate’s only exclusive duty is to confirm appointments made by the Governor.

During legislative sessions, the Legislature is called upon to enact or reject legislation affecting public policy in the state, provide for the levy and collection of taxes and other revenue to support state government and assist local government, and appropriate funds for these purposes.

State Representative

A representative’s term is two years. The House is made up of 98 members, two from each legislative district in the state. The total membership of the House is up for election each even-numbered year. During legislative sessions, the Legislature is called upon to enact or reject legislation affecting public policy in the state, provide for the levy and collection of taxes and other revenue to support state government and assist local government, and appropriate funds for these purposes.

County Council

A Snohomish County Council member serves as part of the legislative branch of county government. Each council member is elected from a particular geographic district. The five-member council adopts budgets, enacts ordinances, and levies taxes. The council provides an avenue for the public to participate in county government.

Public Utility District Commissioner

Public utility district commissioners sit on the governing board of the public utility district and serve 6 year terms. Only voters within a commissioner’s district may vote to nominate a candidate during the primary for the general election ballot. All voters in the entire public utility district vote to elect the commissioner in the general election.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to: Setting district utility policies and priorities; appointing the utility district manager; providing oversight of the districts operations; adopting system plans; establishing utility charges and rates; and representing members of their districts in public utility decision making.

Voter Qualifications

To register to vote you must be:

- A citizen of the United States
- A legal resident of Washington State
- At least 18 years old by Election Day
- Not disqualified due to a court order
- Not currently under the Department of Corrections supervision for a felony conviction

In Washington State, you do not register by political party or declare political party membership to vote.

How to Register to Vote

- Register online at www.votewa.gov
- Mail in a completed registration form (available online and at public libraries, schools, and other government offices)

Registration Deadlines

- Register to vote online or by mail by July 27 (8 days before an election)
- Register to vote in person at the county elections office until 8 p.m. on Election Day

How to Change Your Address

- Update your address by calling or writing your county elections office
- If you move to a new county, complete a new registration form or submit your change online at www.votewa.gov

How to get a replacement ballot

- Polling place staff, mail ballot or submit portal at votewa.gov, or
- Call Snohomish County Elections at 425-388-3444

Ballots

All registered voters will receive a ballot in the mail for every election in which they are eligible to vote. Accessible voting equipment will be available to allow voters who cannot vote independently by mail to vote a private, secure ballot. (See Accessible Voting on page 2).

Ballot envelopes must be signed and be postmarked or dropped in a ballot drop box on or before Election Day, August 4, 2020. If returned via mail on Election Day, ensure ballot is returned before the last pick-up time at the mail box or facility. If returned via ballot drop box on Election Day, ensure ballot is returned before boxes close promptly at 8:00 p.m.

Election Results Online

On election night, voting results will be posted online after 8:00 p.m. at www.snooco.org/elections.

What does an elected official do?

U.S. Representative

U.S. Representatives must be at least 25 years of age, have been a citizen of the U.S. for at least seven years, and be a registered voter of the state from which he or she is elected. Each Representative’s term is two years. The House of Representatives is made up of 435 members, each state allocated a different number of members based on population. The total membership of the House is up for election in even-numbered years.

The Senate and House have equal responsibility for declaring war, maintaining the armed forces, assessing taxes, borrowing money, minting currency, regulating commerce, and making all laws necessary for the operation of government.

Governor

The Governor is the chief executive officer of the state. The Governor makes appointments for hundreds of positions, including directors of state agencies. The Governor reports annually to the Legislature on affairs of the state and submits a budget recommendation. The Governor has the power to sign or veto (reject) legislation passed by the Legislature.

Lieutenant Governor

The Lieutenant Governor is elected independently of the Governor. The Lieutenant Governor is the presiding officer of the state Senate and is first in line of succession for the Office of the Governor. The Lieutenant Governor acts as Governor if the Governor is unable to perform the official duties of the office.

United States Representative, 2012-Present. Ways and Means Committee and Select Committee to Modernize Congress.

Other Professional Experience
Successful career as a businesswoman and entrepreneur. Former Microsoft executive, led local high-tech startups. Former Director of Washington’s Department of Revenue, where I led efforts to simplify the tax system and help small businesses.

Education
B.A., Biology, Reed College; M.B.A., University of Washington.

Community Service
I’ve mentioned students at UW Business, been active in my church, serving as a board member. Volunteered with the PTA, Girl Scouts and YWCA, supporting transitional housing, job training and services to help families get back on their feet.

Statement
During this pandemic, families across the 1st Congressional District are struggling and concerned about the future. No one more than we need strong leadership that’s focused on helping those in need, protecting health and safety and restoring our economy. As your Congresswoman, I am determined that we come through this difficult stretch stronger than ever. My focus is on putting partisanship aside and delivering results.

The first known COVID-19 case struck in Washington State before anywhere else. President Trump denied the threat and wasted precious time. By contrast, I moved quickly, securing funds to backfill state and local public health accounts. Washington State immediately received over $11 million, with continued ongoing support. I also advocated for employee-retention tax credits to keep an estimated 80 million people employed with benefits. They were incorporated into the pandemic relief Heroes Act.

As the economy reopens we face an uncertain recovery. We need smart, decisive action to restore our economy. My background as a successful businesswoman and entrepreneur means I understand how to bring businesses back and create jobs.

My proposal to expand child tax credits, which could reduce child poverty 38 percent, has been incorporated businesses back and create jobs.

My core values remain unchanged. As I have done from the day I took office, I’ll protect Social Security, Medicare and a woman’s right to choose. I have endorsements from Democratic groups, labor, local leaders and many others.

The fallout from this pandemic is challenging, but I’m committed to putting people back to work and preserving the middle-class, I ask for your support.

Statement
The primary declaration of my campaign is that the Democratic/Republican regime in Washington D.C. is irredeemable; they have abandoned responsible governance. We must instead elect third-party citizen legislators.

Washington’s jungle primary system makes that possible: together, we can defeat the Republican in the primary, then face only the Democrat in the general election. There will be no “splitting the vote” concerns.

Despite the partisan warfare, there is zero difference between the major parties on the issues that matter. Both parties spend more on our military than Russia, China, and the next 14 largest militaries combined. Both parties post our troops around the globe where they cause more harm than good. Both parties have spent us to a $25 trillion national debt, adding $1 trillion more every year in deficit spending. Both parties have printed billions of our dollars, destroying our savings and putting us in peril of Venezuelan-style currency collapse.

If you want debt, war, corruption, and scandal — you can safely vote for either party. They will both deluge.

The Libertarian Party offers a different vision. We believe the armed forces exist to defend our country and its citizens from attack, not to police the world and participate in proxy wars on the other side of the globe. We believe the government should spend responsibly, no more than it takes.

The founding fathers called the House of Representatives “the people’s house.” It was meant to be filled with citizen legislators. It was never meant to be run by career politicians. It’s time to return dignity and responsibility to our federal government.

Statement
The Future is What You Make It

Thank you dear hon for giving of your time to vote, I’m Matthew Heines and for you, a poem I wrote. It’s about why you should check the box next to my name. That way, things will never be the same.

In 2016, I ran on my plan called Real Deal. We were facing so many problems it would make a non snail. Since that time, Congress has stabled us in our basins, Making a bonanza for dirty lawyers and their political hacks. Politicians put in popup shows to justify their existence. While the hateful media covers up their malfeasance.

As of all we suspected before I know now to be true. If you ain’t got no money, America doesn’t care about you. The rich sail racin, keeping the working poor in check. With hateful media, lie wagers and never ending debt. They manipulate you by pictures, songs and false words. But when the election is over, your voice is not heard.

Thanks to this virus, you got poorer while the rich took it all. They live in splendor, your back against the wall. They make you wear masks and stay penned like hogs, While they sit in their mansions doing interviews with dogs. These politicians, they love to talk about their money. They show you their ice cream and they think that’s funny.

Well, I’m Matthew Heines and I’m running for Congress. As a teacher, all of my life, I had to make do with less. To the people of Bremerton I have just one thing to say, you must mail in your vote, you must do so today. The future is what we make it, but we must read the sign. This sign says “Great future ahead, if you Vote 4 Heines.”

Statement
American politics and politicians no longer serve ordinary citizens like you and me. They lack the collaborative mindset of striving and sacrificing together toward a common goal, a mindset that we instill in our youth, our teams at work, and the non-profit and civic organizations where we serve. As an independent, your vote for me is a mandate to work towards positive incremental change with anyone willing to put the interests of Washington State and America first.

There is always common ground to be found, especially on issues that divide us the most. My stance on any issue is informed and guided by my understanding of the facts in light of our shared American identity and values. We are resilient, compassionate, and kind. We cherish fairness, justice, the rule of law, and our Constitutionally protected liberties, as both originally written and later refined by the courts. We honor and commit to care for those who serve and protect our communities and our freedom. We roar for the underdog and love redemption stories. We nurture the fires, well-being, and health of our families and all others in our community. We desire equitable ways to leave a better world, environmentally and economically, for future generations. We eagerly prepare for a future that will be fundamentally changed by innovation, innovation that must benefit us all, not just the few. We reject elitism, sexism, racism, and discrimination.

As an engineer, executive, board member, coach, mentor, neighbor, and friend, I have spent my life serving others, solving problems, building consensus, cutting through bureaucracy, and getting the job done; all in alignment with our American values. If you share this vision and these values, and desire to see them triumph over base partisanship and negativity, I ask for your vote and your support.

Statement
Hi, My name is Derek Chartrand and I am working hard to represent you in Washington’s 1st District. Born in Bellevue and raised in Redmond, I have called beautiful Western Washington Home for over Four decades.

Today, politics need to change or we will get what we don’t want: unresponsive, out of touch “career” politicians whose main goal is to fund-raise to get re-elected. Politicians should work for and be accountable to You, the voter. To that end, I, Derek Chartrand pledge to serve you the voters and limit my term to no more than 6 years in Congress so fresh ideas have the chance to grow. We will work hard fostering relationships that will bring similarities and celebrate our uniqueness to ensure all of us can pursue Our “American Dream.”

Campaigned and driving part time for Uber the last 2 years, I have heard from thousands of voters. Your voice matters!

The cornerstone of my campaign are Common Sense and Civility. Let’s make our country a kinder and gentler Nation. We are bred to be Americans and we need to radiate that message. As a compassionate capitalist I’m mindful of our planet.

My first plank of my platform is education reform. We can improve the economy and help the middle class by providing training for trades jobs that are critically low such as electricians, fabricators, plumbers and truck drivers, and enhance STEM for our 21st Century economy.

I will use my talents and ability to work across party lines to ensure everyone in the first district feels like their children and grandchildren have a realistic path to “Their” futures success. Join me in using Common Sense and Civility in Washington DC as I ask for your vote to represent you! Together we can make a difference!

Statement
As a small business owner, HOA President, and Sultan City Councilmember I have broad experience managing budgets, taxes, and legislation. I have learned how to faithfully represent my community’s diverse perspectives, served as its watchdog against wasteful spending, and helped our city achieve its highest bond rating.

Congress is supposed to represent you and work to solve the problems that matter most. Immigration remains broken, Social Security runs out of money by 2035, and our national debt grows by Trillions of dollars every year. It’s also clear our debt needs to become more self-reliant, manufacturing more vital goods here and not sending jobs and money overseas.

You deserve a fair, transparent, and effective tax system that supports entrepreneurship, job creation, and everyday taxpayers, while fulfilling societal needs and core responsibilities such as infrastructure, highways, rail lines, and our power grid. Responsible infrastructure investment may have prevented the I-5 Skagit River Bridge collapse. As a former member of the US 2 Safety Coalition, I was instrumental in securing over $200 Million in safety improvements to our rural highways. I will bring this type of experience to Congress.

I will fight any attempts to weaken or destroy your constitutional rights, especially our 1st Amendment - freedom of speech, assembly, religion, the press and our 2nd Amendment - your right to bear arms to protect yourself and those you hold dear. You should especially support and lift up our veterans and military families who have sacrificed so much for these freedoms.

Finally, I believe that serving in Congress should be a short term privilege, not a career, with the goal of restoring America to its founding values - a land where everyone has equal opportunity to experience the richness of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. I humbly ask for your vote.

Statement
As a retired Navy Combat Aircrewman, corporate businessman, and involved citizen, Tim wants to bring the people’s perspective back to DC. Tim recognizes Americans deserve accountability and a government that prioritizes upholding the Constitution and serving its citizens. He will work for the People of the 2nd Congressional District, not for lobbyist or PACs.

Economy: Tim believes the more government gets out of the way, the better our economy gets. A strong private sector economy is the greatest way to keep America strong and independent. As Reagan once said, “Government is not the solution to our problem, government is the problem.”

America must no longer depend on importing our essentials from other countries. This recent pandemic has shown how vulnerable we are to China for medicine, essentials, and other goods. Bringing manufacturing back to our country creates more independence, jobs, revenue, and security for all Americans.

Health Care: America has the best health care in the world! We should all be able to afford it by reducing unnecessary regulations and frivolous litigation. Opening health insurance across state lines will free up the capitalist marketplace creating competition and competitive rates. Private insurance brings choice and Americans deserve the ability to choose what is best for them or their business.

Immigration: Immigrants have always added to what makes America great. However, our immigration system is broken. America has the right and responsibility to enforce the laws that work while changing those that don’t.

Tim will work for the laws that need adjusting, advocating for legal immigration, and work permits utilizing a multi-based system ensuring America welcomes self-supporting individuals that will not depend on your tax dollars to live.

Tim loves WA and his life here, he will represent us while living among us and asks for your vote.

Trump orchestrated the greatest economy in more than 50 years. As jobs boomed, I found myself literally living people off the street. Then, communist China wiped it out. But the sky is not falling. Trump brought back the American dream once, and we will do it again, bigger and better.

Democrat “representatives” wasted four years pushing the Russian collusion hoax, staging a phony impeachment, and ripping up the State of the Union. Do not give them another day of partisan obstruction.

Let Congress get back to work.

Elect me. I will drop everything, go to D.C., and support every legislative action that helps Trump succeed, impeachment, and ripping up the State of the Union.

Statement
We have a Liberal, democratic, majority government, including twenty years of my dear opponent in office and now that he is leaving for you these days Mr. & Mrs. Washington State? With a 2020 clear vision, it’s obviously not. We have an exponential increase in poverty, crime, homelessness, hard drug usage/overdoses, mental illness, depression, suicides, along with prices of housing, food and prescription drugs. Making ends meet every month isn’t getting any easier. It’s clearly not about political party or partisan politics, everyone knows this isn’t working out.

I am an independent-minded, Christian, who believes in Jesus, conservative, republican, who actually voted for a democrat back in 2016 for president and now supported by this president himself, as we have learned to know and even like one another through time.

I am not for the constitution, freedom, sovereignty, military & family. My father served twenty years in the U.S. Air Force within the departments of the strategic air command, nuclear, special operations and fighter flying. Born 1965-65.

Keeping nature clean from pollutants, including the air, water and ground, are the key to a prosperous future and that is simply indefensible. Yet, we absolutely, also, have to protect private property & water rights for citizens as well. If we remove lifetime tenure and impunity for federal judges & set term limits for members of congress, we will start to finally see justice be served.

Against: gay marriage, abortion, common core, comprehensive sexual education of children at public schools, increasing taxes, fake news, taking away freedom, the government keeping your jobs closed.

It wasn’t the current president who meddled, colluded, with foreign powers, in a failed attempt to try to steal the 2016 Election, it was the former president from 2009-17, and yes, he should be impeached for that.

Rick Larsen
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
I began trying to make a difference through public service on the Snohomish County Council, and today, it is my privilege to serve as the Representative for Washington’s 2nd Congressional District.

Other Professional Experience
I was previously employed by the Port of Everett and the Washington State Dental Association.

Education
I graduated from Pacific Lutheran University in Washington state and have a master’s degree from the University of Minnesota.

Community Service
My parents were an important influence on me, encouraging me to be involved in my local community. Their encouragement continues to be a motivation for us to our communities.

Statement
It is an honor to represent the 2nd District. I am inspired by the strength and resilience of workers, families, students and small business owners across Northeast Washington, whose experiences drive me to fight for an economy that works for everyone.

In our region, that means bringing middle class families better jobs and higher wages, and addressing the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. I am focused on putting the middle class and workers first, fighting climate change and protecting our environment, increasing access to health care and protecting the right to vote.

To compete in the changing global economy, we must invest in education and skills training. I am committed to making it easier and more affordable for workers to go back to school, and for students to get the education they need. I also support bringing science, technology, engineering, arts and math (STEAM) education into our classrooms.

A healthy environment is important to our region’s economy and way of life. It is my priority to address the impacts of climate change, ensure the U.S. continues to clean renewable energy and environmental sustainability, and protect our lands, water, and wildlife.

Fighting for middle class families and workers also means expanding access to high-quality affordable health care. I am focused on ensuring veterans get the care they need, lowering prescription drug costs and supporting protections for pre-existing conditions.

I was born and raised in Arlington, and my family has called this region home for more than 100 years. I am committed to building an economy that creates more jobs and opportunities for all. If you feel the same, I ask for your support.

Statement
We the People, America First, Washington State, District 2 deserve a new voice, a fighter for our district. Today’s Democratic Party has morphed into socialistic agencies which do not represent American values, beliefs. America has gained too much to allow overreach of career politicians voting straight party line. The Forgotten Washingtonians of District 2 and our great America deserve better, and I am the woman willing to fight for you! Can Do!

I would appreciate your vote, support as I will fight for our future. I’m very proud to be an American, U.S. Navy Seabee wife, mother, daughter of naval officer, friend and ambassador for our way of life, home and abroad. It would be a great honor and privilege to be your voice. God bless great Washington State, USA, and each of you, my fellow Americans. Your vote and support would be most appreciated. Thank you.

Community Service
35 years of activism and organizing in climate, healthcare, and arthritic action

Statement
I am the only Progressive candidate seeking to represent Washington’s 2nd Congressional District.

We’re faced with crises that must be addressed immediately.Millions of Americans have no healthcare. Millions more have insurance too costly to pay. I support Medicare For All which eliminates all out of pocket costs for healthcare, including dental, vision, hearing, mental health, and longterm care. COVID-19 proves the need for nonprofit healthcare to effectively address health crises, ensuring everyone can see doctors when they need to without fear of financial burden on themselves and their families.

I will champion the Green New Deal resolution to eliminate carbon emissions, invest in renewable, sustainable energies, and create millions of good paying jobs. I support a federal jobs guarantee that provides economic security to displaced workers in the new Green Economy. Our extensive coastlines and volcanic Cascades will allow us to lead the nation and world, tapping tidal and geothermal energy sources and scaling back the cutting of our forests in favor of ecologically sound, renewable resources for paper, fiber, and oil.

It’s time to eliminate homelessness, and systemic racism, cancel student debt, free public college and vocational training, reduce military spending, and eliminate endless war. I will strive to ensure living wages for all workers, eliminating tax loopholes and allowable havens for corporations. We need to eliminate the Social Security tax. We need to institute a wealth tax, raising the income tax rate on extreme wealth to ensure the tax burden is fair.

As a parent and teacher of learners, I understand the hopes and fears of young people encountering a vastly different world than the one I grew up in. I’ve been an activist and educator my whole adult life. I humbly ask for your vote.

Statement
As a proud father, Navy Veteran, business owner, and Professional Engineer I am confident I can use my unique background to better address the challenges our region and country are facing.

Having no elected political experience, I believe, We the People must stand up and run for political offices overtaken by people who do not respect nor uphold our U.S. Constitution, or even understand America. Laws subverted, abused by some, their decisions imposed on us, have forgotten they were elected by The People. I am a defender, advocate for our Constitution, Bill of Rights, Rule of Law, and Justice for All, not just a select group based on political agendas. As your Representative, For the People, I will faithfully uphold my oath of office with truth, honesty, and integrity.

I am running for Congress to promote renewable energy technologies and fiscal responsibility and stopping wasteful spending.

Constitutional Amendment: Members of Congress are to handle all proposed law. If a member of Congress is physically unable to handle a proposed law another member of Congress can handle a proposed law for them.

The American railroad industry uses recycled plastic for its railroad ties. The U.S. Army has built bridges of post consumer plastic that are fire resistant to 700 degrees Fahrenheit. The world can turn waste plastic into fire resistant timbers to build houses around the world. Plastic house can be coated in galvanized steel to make them more fire resistant.

Wind mill in small villages around the world can store their excessive electrical power as hydrogen gas in floating drums of similar design that are used in biomasses to methane systems and produce electricity in steam engines. Where it is not economical to run electrical power lines from run of the river electrical power systems to villages them more fire resistant.

The best way to do geopolitical power is to drill a traditional shaft down to the hot dry rock zone. Use flame jet drilling technology to carve an underground cavern. Use advanced hard rock directional drilling technology to connect to the underground cavern for a 50 plus megawatt electrical power system. By the year 2050 we can install 500,000 megawatts of baselaw geopolitical energy.

Statement
My name is Jack Spencer Hughes-Hageman and I want to be your congressman. I am running a really tiny campaign in a pretty big city, but I got a lot of heart and I don’t give up. I am committed to my goals and finding a way to win. It’s why I watch Seahawks games and why I am running for congress. My platform is very progressive and will be highlighted by repealing Federal marijuana prohibition with universal amnesty, restructuring of the criminal justice system to better aide communities and the law enforcement that serves them, and immediate federal response to end the homelessness crisis sweeping the west coast and America abroad. Though these may be highlights, they are just a small piece of my broader progressive platform. My stance on issues like education, healthcare, electoral reforms, immigration and more can be found on my website. I am staunchly anti-corporate, and feel corporations have undue influence on our politicians. I do not take any payments from PAC’s. I don’t spend money on adverts, and I don’t make social media-appeals for donations. Honestly, I haven’t collected any donations yet and I don’t know if I will. Personally I don’t have comfortable asking hardworking people and families for money. I don’t own stock, I am happy to release my tax returns, and I am not a millionaire. My progressive values are rooted in conservation of nature, equality, and realizing the purpase of happiness. I was born in Seattle 28 years ago, and now I am running for congress to represent the people of this city and the 7th district of Washington. My name is Jack Hughes-Hageman and I would sincerely appreciate your vote for congress. Let’s prove together that deep corporate pockets do not make a politician.

Statement
Our political system is broken.
On average, it takes over a million dollars to win a congressional seat. A typical congressman must save over a thousand dollars every day, just to keep their job. All the good they want to do, all their plans, none of it will ever happen if they don’t raise enough money to keep their job. This is a fail safe of our system. Even the best intentioned politicians are forced to cozy up with rich donors if they want to keep their job long enough to accomplish anything. This is why our system works great for the rich, but poorly for everyone-else.

I’m Rick Lewis. My background is in Military Intelligence, Business Development, Artificial Intelligence and Game Theory. Basically, I have the resume of a highly competent James Bond Villain. Over the last 25 years, I have used these skills to solve problems which many considered impossible. I have done this for numerous clients, including some of the biggest businesses in the world including the State and Federal government. Over my career I have found that real change only seems impossible if you don’t have the vision to see past the big obstacles. In my current system, some of the biggest obstacles are money and its oversized influence. I have an approach to mitigate that influence, which will work within the law and receive broad bipartisan support. Addressing this issue will allow congresspeople to focus their capability and zeal solving the problems of the voters rather than being forced to focus on the desires of their largest donors.
Please visit my website at http://www.RichLewis7th.com to learn how I will shift the focus away from money and towards solving the problems that so many of us face.

Statement
I am proud to represent and fight for our community in Congress. I came to America by myself when I was 18, and I have been a Seattle resident for thirty years. As your U.S. Representative, I am focused on ensuring everyone has quality health care, securing working people’s rights, protecting our environment and public lands, welcoming immigrants, fighting for reproductive rights and LGBTQ equality, making college debt-free, and expanding Social Security and Medicaid. As Co-Chair of the Congressional Progressive Caucus. I introduced legislation to achieve Medicare for All, create tuition-free college, expand collective bargaining, and provide relief directly to workers and businesses during the COVID-19 pandemic. I’ve taken on other big fights too, including transitioning to a 100% renewable energy future, reforming our elections and getting money out of politics, increasing the national minimum wage, and pushing for human immigration reform.
During my time as your Congressman, I’ve held 96 town halls to hear from you and fight for priorities like affordable housing and robust public transit and infrastructure. I have helped hundreds of constituents – including veterans and seniors – get over $3.8 million dollars back in federal benefits. As a Member of the Judiciary Committee, I have helped this corrupt administration accountable and stood up against racial and xenophobic attacks to divide us. And I’ll continue working to build an economy that works for everyone.
I’m proud to represent a distinct rich in innovation, diversity, and compassion. I do not take corporate PAC money because I am here to fight for your and your families, not the wealthy and well-connected. I would be deeply honored to have your vote.

Community Service
P.S. Co-Chair, Co-Founded/RespectWashington.us to defend citizens and legal immigrants against politicians who exploit immigration fraud. Successfully “sanctuary” repeal petitions in Spokane and Burien. Co-Founded SaveOurChoice.us to defend consumer choice (petitions to repeal soda tax, bag ban and job-killing wage).

Statement
This is serious! Time to wash our hands of those who would exploit pandemic to “cancry” our medical and drug development businesses. Elect me to Congress to defend America’s medical professionals and manufacturers who save lives. Trust MID Fau.
I will defend your employment opportunities and wages by voting mandatory E-verify to block SSN thieves. I will also defend aging tech graduates by halting the abusive flood of H-1B visas (who pay no SS as American workers must). I will defend the quality and supply of medicines by voting to restore U.S. production.
I will defend our wonderful postal workers who serve us daily yet persevere inside our USPS bankrupted by unsustainable parcel contracts, which also undermine our devastated Main Street retail. I will vote to outlaw all robocalls.
For a decade I have volunteered my public service toward abolishing human and narcotics trafficking abetted by “sanctuary” harboring. Leadership efforts include successful citizen initiative petitions in Spokane and Burien. My First Amendment defense of Burien voters is now Supreme Court Petition 18-1319 (respectwashington.us). In Congress I will block amnesty and its unspoken collateral drain from Social Security by those who disfranchised our employment laws. Doubters may review the incumbent’s vote to degrade the $1200 pandemic aid eligibility requirement from SSN down to mere Tax Identification Number (issued to nonresident and illegal aliens) (hr6800 Roll Call 108).
Still no one congressman can save you from this financial calamity unleashed by your deceitful colleagues. Only you can protect your family by (1) investing in gold and (2) owning a firearm. Our firearms law enforcement simply cannot replace you taking maximum responsibility for your family’s safety during these trying times. Lastly, for Governor, please come in voting Phil Fortune whose Senate Bill 6903 would free Washington from the curse of “sanctuary” lawlessness.

Statement

Our state is at a crossroads. Washington faces rampant homelessness fueled by mental illness and addiction, out-of-control spending, a lack of adequate funding for transportation, the human tragedy of the opioid crisis, and now COVID-19. Whoever you elect as governor faces an $8 billion shortfall. This is not a time for on the job training.

I am the only candidate with executive private-sector and legislative experience. I have an in-depth knowledge of budgetary issues and the effects cuts have on education and the most vulnerable, especially veterans, services and the disabled. I want to put taxpayers first, restructure state spending, reduce regulations and the size of state government. We can avoid massive tax increases or cuts to critical services that affect those most in need and I am the candidate to do that.

You can check my voting record and see the bills I’ve sponsored that address the problems we face like homelessness, public safety, mental health, transportation and the environment. I fought against the landmark gun control bill, opposed needless tax increases that just grow government, and voted against policies that hurt your family.

Four years ago, we were promised no tax increases only to have $25 billion in new taxes signed into law this year. Now, incompetent responses to COVID-19 have caused untold economic and social devastation to families and small businesses around the state. As your next governor, I will be fair and transparent.

We must bring our state together. An urban-centric approach to governing which ignores the needs of rural Washington and our diverse economy, like agriculture, is not good for the state as a whole. Check out my comprehensive plan, the Blueprint for Washington. It restructures state government to put the people back in charge, not special interests.

Statement

It’s about to get even more complicated.

The next governor is facing a multimillion-dollar budget shortfall, widespread unemployment, a virus that will be with us for a while, plus lingering resentment over the shutdown. The next governor of Washington is going to meet a skill set that we have not seen in politicians before.

This is not the time for any ideology. This is not the time to hire someone who uses this office as a steppin’stone for their next job. This is the time for good management, servant leadership, real diplomacy, and complete indifference to partisan political fights.

The next governor needs to minimize the pain, so you don’t notice it, and be completely transparent about what your government is doing. Your government should be invisible when you don’t need it, and readily available when you do.

When one of my businesses suffered an 80% drop in sales due to a search engine change, I had tough choices to make. The answer wasn’t to simply cut expenses, raise prices, and complain about taxes. Creative and unusual ideas were what saved that company and made it #1 in its industry nationwide. The next governor needs to be this creative, must value freedom and personal responsibility, preserve liberty and rule justly for everyone, and must be a true representative of the people, not a lifelong politician.

I am running for governor to be your servant: to be the manager you hire to work on its greatest financial challenge. I am running to introduce creativity, efficient design, transparency, and diplomacy to state government. As a business owner, my entire job is making sure our customers and employees are served well. With your vote, your next governor will have that same obsession for serving you.

Participating in fights to unify the working class — against racism and police violence, in defense of workers right to choose abortion, and defending immigrant workers.

Statement
Workers and farmers face the long-term economic, social, and moral crisis of capitalism. The response to the coronavirus only exposed and accelerated this crisis.

Safety, wages, and working conditions are under attack in rail and truck transportation, factories and packing plants, and retail. Workers need to fight for control over production to win safe working conditions, manufacture and distribution of quality goods, and protect the environment.

Our party promotes an action program to unite working people internationally and break down the barriers between those of us employed and unemployed. The working class needs to work. That’s where we go through struggles that bolster our confidence and strengthen our trust in each other and our capacities to fight. The Yakima Valley fruit pickers fight for safe working conditions and better pay is an example for all working people.

We urge your support!

The Socialist Workers Party demands the federal government fund a massive public works program now to provide jobs at union wages for the millions tossed out of work. Workers can build needed hospitals, housing, schools and day care centers and replace crumbling infrastructure.

Farmers need solidarity from the working class and must be guaranteed the cost of production. Irresponsible breakdowns in the food market cause the destruction of milk, vegetables and livestocks, as millions face hunger. The government must distribute this food to those who need it world-wide. The bosses divide working people by scapegoating immigrant workers. My campaign fights for amnesty for all undocumented workers in the US.

Workers need a party that speaks in our interests—a labor party. We need to take political power from the bosses’ class and establish a government of workers and farmers. Join the Socialist Workers Party 2020 campaign! Read and subscribe to our campaign newspaper, the Militant at www.themilitant.com

Statement
Our economy and society has forever changed. For better or worse, it is likely there will be no going back.

We owe a debt to our essential workers, who put their lives at risk every day, to provide them with childcare and tuition-free college or trade school. Our farmworkers deserve strong workplace protections. Our health care professionals deserve a reporting infrastructure that takes their demands and whistleblower complaints seriously.

Healthcare, including mental healthcare, should be covered for all Washington citizens. We need to shore up our domestic violence and child abuse prevention and reporting infrastructure. We need to invest in K-12 online learning infrastructures and opportunities.

We need to support Native American communities and preserve our ecological inheritance. We need to preserve the Sahhali Sesh and work towards the ultimate removal of the Snake River Dams, while supporting and compensating farmers and other stakeholders.

Finally, Amazon’s priorities have been anti-competitive and predatory. We need to transform Amazon into a public utility owned by the people.

Statement
As Governor, my mission will be to fix Washington’s broken system. I’ll bring my battle-tested experience and proven results reforming government to serve you.

Imagine a politician betrayed voters by breaking campaign promises to veto taxes, raising them 30 times instead. Imagine if that same politician recklessly shut down thousands of small businesses, forcing a million people out of work, while letting mega-corporations remain open. The lockdown of Washington squandered political allies but punished everyone else.

As Governor, I will serve you. I’ll veto taxes, prioritize spending, grow our economy, create jobs, and protect your constitutional rights. For 22 years, I’ve fought for you with initiatives that cut taxes, strengthened our communities and made our streets safer. I’ve saved taxpayers $62 Billion and vigorously fought against 30 tax hikes that ultimately cost citizens $50 Billion. While you can rely on me to cut taxes—because I’ve done it over and over—I imagine a politician causing an economic crisis and exploiting it to raise taxes like carbon taxes, income taxes, and a crazy $Pay-Per-Mile-Tax. Instead, I’ll block all tax increases and deliver $30 Car Tabs.

I led court battles that successfully reopened schools on time, protected kids’ right to learn, and battled against exposing small children to sexual material in classrooms. (Reject Referendum 97)

8 years of reckless policies created the most homelessness and violent crime in our state’s history. I’ll use common-sense strategies to get the homeless off the streets.

We can’t tolerate any politician taking $5 million from taxpayers for campaigning; blocking your vote for $30 Tabs, taxing $1 Billion to Nigerian princes; or allowing lawlessness, riot, and armed occupation of city streets. This broken system no longer serves the people.

No more betrayal. Vote for me and I promise I will fight for you.

Statement
I am running as a spokesperson for the anti-apartheid / reparations-now movement. My issues and solutions:

1) Raise awareness that Washington State is Native American land, and should be returned. Colonialism is no longer acceptable. 2) The current administration’s biggest mistake is turning Seattle’s SHU building over to proven/historical Negro vampire criminals. This is unconstitutional, and will be opposed in the courts and on the street.

3) Reparations must be paid to “Afrikaners” to repair/repair the cultural and economic damage done to the refugees from European colonial settler terrorism / slavery. 4) End the ethnic cleansing/“gentrification” of blacks out of Seattle’s historic central area and Tacoma’s historic Hilltop (aka Afriktown).

5) Remove the names/images of the “North American Hitlers”, Washington / Jefferson, those mass murderers of Native American “Indians” and “owners” of hundreds of “slaves”. 6) Stop schools from teaching any children that Washington and Jefferson (“Indian” killers / slaves) were champions of “freedom, justice, equality and democracy” when they were in fact brutal “terrorists”.

7) End homelessness by providing land, materials/expertise for homeless to build their own mortgage-free housing. (have you ever seen a homeless bird?) 8) Limit “police” to 5-year terms—in which they must complete PTSD and stop criminals hiding behind government issued badges/guns.

9) Our state must form its own bank to finance ending homelessness through sweat equity. 10) Since race is arbitrarily based on “skin-color”, redefine “race” based on hair color, which is much easier to change—especially for “white minded” integrated Negros like Court Justice “Uncle” Clarence Thomas.

Today you will choose a leader that will inherit a pandemic. I still believe the most important words of the United States Constitution is “We The People”. We cannot ignore that our country is now in a state of a catastrophic crisis on all levels of government. Getting things done is what I offer Washingtonians. Healing and regaining the trust of the people is my first order of business when I take office. Understanding cultural differences and working with many elected leaders around the world has prepared me to work with people of all-ethnic background. It is time to break with practises which have made us the playboy of the world and to bring us to our significant role in this world. I bring the values and leadership that have made Washington the state we are, and I will lead with a heart of compassion and in the spirit of servitude.

Statement
Over the past 35 years, Washington State has had an elected Democrat as Governor. With decades of empty promises and slow progress, look where it has led us to. As the next Governor of Washington State, Tylor Grow, will eliminate the partisan gridlock that keeps our beautiful state from reaching its true potential by steaming the way Washington State handles tax revenue.

I will reform our methods of collecting tax revenue regarding infrastructure to greatly benefit all of Washington’s residents - not just the select few in the state’s urban centers. I will reform how we allocate funds for Washington State’s public schools in order to help our students.

I will reform our state’s health care system by providing a public option for our state’s residents. No one should have to worry about the cost of health care. I will stop penalizing tax-funded organizations and programs for not using enough provided tax funds. This leads to wasteful spending which should be discouraged.

I will reform how we handle our homeless population. I will invest in building large dormitories in which resources for wellbeing, rehabilitation, and career-building cases will be available. This will keep people off the streets and add to our booming workforce.

As a gay person of Mexican descent, I know what it’s like to be discriminated against. I want to help everyone in Washington State no matter: race, gender, sexual orientation, income, and/or ability.

Vote Tylor Grow for Governor of Washington State!

Hi, I’m Thor Amundson, and I am a pro-democracy candidate. Born and raised in Eastern Washington, I’ve lived and worked throughout the state, and this has given me the opportunity to talk with people in all walks of life, and to consider the variety of issues facing them. I believe that without a little more opportunity for the next generation, we cannot have a healthy civilization.

If corporations move to other countries, they should follow the same rules and labour practices as in the USA. Stop shipping logs, jobs, and clean air over seas. Turn off reactor at Hanford; stop making the mess. Nationwide public internet access for everyone and net neutrality. Ban the use of certain weed killers on federally funded sites. Overturn Citizens United.

Picture a state and a nation where your children can afford to live. A land without discrimination, and where the working person receives their just reward. A place where worker’s rights are protected, where innovative, effective leadership inspires; and where elected officials are chosen by the people, not by their financial contributors. Rather than propose campaign reform, I’m going to implement it; I am not an attorney, and I am not a politician. Therefore, there will be no question about who I am working for: I will work for Washington into the 21st century.

As the first Senator not financed by PAC money, and hailing from one of the best states in the Union, I will still the very devils of the old guard in Washington D.C., and at the same time provide inspiration to anyone else who truly cares about the future of our great Nation. I am backed by %100 of Orca. Please vote for Thor Amundson, U.S. Senate.

Statement
Many activists and a state-sponsored working group are working on healthcare reform, here in Washington, our home. Coming to The People’s desk for signature first, as Washington State Governor, I would most likely sign that reform, given my sense of it, as the next step for healthcare as an unalienable right.

We need our Robust Economy, rural and urban, to pay for our programs, Before, it was only good, fair reduced taxes for The Great Majority, followed by education, our state’s Paramount Duty, as mandated by our Washington State Constitution and Target Zero transportation deaths and transportation major injuries before this decade’s end. Our pandemician tsumani has changed the lay of the land.

Now we all require that rural and urban Robust Economy and good, fair revenue, yes Fair Taxes, family wage jobs, thriving independent, employee-owned businesses of caliber.

In my mind, it really is Full Mobilization, All Hands, Non-Profits, Profits and Government needed, urged, coached and inspired. As Governor, Washington, our home, I will establish a kitchen Cabinet concept in Office of the Governor to educate and move our People, our economy, our society, Onward. We already have top quality, volunteers waiting in the wings.

This is our home. We want, We deserve more. Putting People First, Keeping People First. It short, I want the good, better and best angels of our nature, fully mobilized, not the ugly, worst and flawed earth angels of our nature. My apology for long-winded polemic, but you did press the on button and it worked.

"Keep Washington Wonderful"

Why am I running for Governor? Because I believe Times of Crisis Reveal Who's Men's and Hearts. Panic Miller Response. It's fundamental Darwinian the fundamental chris. It's fundamental Religion and Community Stand and fight or Retreat and compromise. Live with honor and show your opponent some Quarter in mutual times of crisis or Live for power and take advantage of your opponent purely because the opportunity is there to be had!

The colonies did not rebel because the time was ripe. Present moment? What Great things could possibly come from such virtues less tactics? We Dared or against an ever-increasing Tyrannical King and decided the time of being ruled by other's was an inequity we would no longer justify. We did not take on the issue of slavery out of convenience or because the political landscape was ripe. We took up the fight against slavery because the owning of slaves was tearing our country apart and we had to decide to do we really believe all men to be equal.

Maybe this is why war is always doomed to fall. When struggling for survival against lions and tigers and bears and maybe such monster's like Hitler and Stalin and Mao, attacking such monsters when they sleep or find themselves in an unforeseen snare is validated. But using such means whenever they present themselves against other human beings may in the end be the end of us all!

I believe many have shown their true colors and are using this time of crisis as justifications to Grab power and just if authoritarianism and chip away at the foundations of our country. Not money, not slavery, not fear, not law, not greed or power. That Every Citizen has the right to Freedom.

Statement
Anton brings years of leadership experience in the private sector where he has spent his career solving problems. Anton understands the important issues facing Washingtonians, but are ignored by the out of touch political establishment; Anton is not a career politician, will not play politics and will not be bought. His business approach offers real solutions to the soaring issues we face.

Anton's vision for Washington to be a state that is efficiently and effectively serving its people. He sees what is broken and will enact real solutions. He will respect the will of voters, cut taxes, reduce bureaucracy, uphold the Constitution and Rights. He will return the Olympia savings and end the drug tax and government enabled homelessness by holding agencies accountable to their budgets. He will end government interference in our lives, the extreme liberal agendas pushed on our children and attacks on personal freedom. He envisions a Washington that is friendly to businesses and individual liberty. A Washington where Constitutional rights are protected, businesses thrive, and individual success is not punished by uncontrolled taxation through the death tax, estate recovery tax and real estate taxes.

Under Anton's leadership, the state will reduce regulations, attract new businesses, allow existing businesses to thrive and reopen closed industries.

A refugee from the Soviet Union, he has seen the damage caused by too much government; too much regulation, and the importance of a balance of powers in maintaining a free and prosperous life.

The Governor of Washington State should not be a career politician but instead a leader and executive manager who is working for the people. As a proud American citizen, he fully expects government, and Anton has realized the American Dream – a dream that is alive and is deserving of every hard-working Washingtonian.

Statement
We must again, I ran for this office in 2016, introducing a word I coined. Do you remember that word? I’ve learned a lot since then. In fact, I’ve been working on a series of books focusing on politics, as I call it. They include the first ever general political reference focusing on Washington State and its de facto capital, Seattle. Seattle Politi and what may be the first truthful book about Bill Gates will be published before the general election. A third book, focusing on conspiracies in politics, has already been one of my top issues. As a former wildlife biologist in Alaska, I recognize environmental protection as the most important issue of all.

On the international scene, we need to put an end to our decades-old trade contre to China. I view China as a threat, Israel is the enemy. In fact, my book Seattle Politi is illustrated with photos taken with a Chinese Huawei smartphone, which boasts the best camera(s) of any smartphone.

Please ignore the Seattle Times and other sickly media and their endorsements. If voters can’t think for themselves, what hope is there?

In these trying times, it’s more important than ever to believe in the power of one. As Edward Abbey said, a patriot must always be ready to protect his country from his government. In that spirit, my crusade won’t end with this election campaign. Elected or not, I will continue to learn and fight the good fight.

Community Service

Statement
Putting people over party. It’s what I did as a City Councilmember in my hometown of Lake Forest Park. It’s what I’ll do if elected as your Governor.

As an anti-Trump Republican, I know Washingtonians appreciate a leader who tells it like it is. The Republican Party of Lincoln is not the party of the past few years.

Valuing individuals over party affiliation, I’ve supported candidate Democrats who’ve proven competency to govern. I proudly helped Bob Ferguson’s campaign for Council. He was a great Councilmember; he’s a real Attorney General. This year, I backed Senator Amy Klobuchar for President and endorses Hillary Clinton’s reallocation for Lands Commissioner.

The current administration of our state is led by officials who have been serving since Ronald Reagan was President. 36 years in power; what do they have to show for it? Do we really want the same people, doing the same thing, for 4 more years?

I’m writing this in May, as a first time, soon-to-be dad late this summer, wondering about the world into which my daughter will be born. 2020 will be a depression year. GDP down 10%, DOH below 20,000, 40 million unemployed, and staggering deaths from coronaviruses. But out of despair… we can find hope.

I’m running for Governor because my generation and those that follow will reap both the benefits and the consequences. Those with substance abuse need medical and psychological support. A woman’s body belongs to her, not the government. No Second Amendment violation. Our 70 million backup army does not kill innocent people, those with mental illness and mental disabilities are not criminals. We need to reform our criminal justice system and get resources to those who need them the most.

Students should not have to be punished with student loans when trying to become productive members of society. The Police, firefighter and school districts should have better and more up-to-date technology. All students and teachers should be provided with a bus and light rail for as long as they carry partial credits.

I will introduce a bill to protect first responders and give them hazards pay, and another bill that will protect small businesses during a pandemic. Pandemics will be dealt with one city and one country at a time.

Statement
The State of Washington is incredible. Her diversity, geography and economy would power a strong independent nation. The upcoming term demands one of the hardest working governors in history, to halt fighting and guide our state to a swift, safe recovery.

My grandparents immigrated to Washington in the early 20th century, starting a small dairy farm. They would be proud of their descendants - children and grandchildren who have become professionals in almost every imaginable industry, served our country, and of course continued to farm. I was raised on a hop farm along the Yakima River - drove tractor, fed the pigs, logged irrigation pipes and worked non-stop through summer harvests.

After attending the USC Film School, I was hired as the station manager for KUSO, a public TV and radio station in Alaska. I met a remarkable, strong woman in Dutch Harbor, and we returned to Washington to start a family. Our oldest son recently graduated from the University of Washington, where our youngest son is a freshman.

I have been in public service for eleven years, working closely with city, state and county agencies. I am best positioned to oversee the executive branch of our state, and will make the most efficient use of my time while never fundraising. In addition to working across the aisle, the Governor needs to thoroughly understand all state agencies, and earn the respect of employees and the public. I have demonstrated the ability to work with all levels of government, bringing together opposing ideas for stronger solutions.

This election must be about independence. Washington is independent. Republicans and Democrats are good people, though the current party leadership promotes divisiveness and distrust. I would be honored to be your Governor, and will promote respect for all Washingtonians.

Education
Attendee of Washington State University since age 15. Mapping in biology and minoring in business administration, he’s finished his junior year, completing his business minor.

Community Service
Spent nearly 10 hours a week serving at a church and community church.

Statement
I’m running for Governor because my generation and those that follow will reap both the benefits and the long term consequences of the decisions made by our current administration. Washington has become increasingly tax happy, yet many of the programs that tax dollars are being dumped into aren’t reaping their intended benefits which need to change. These programs have better solutions waiting to be applied that would allow the people of Washington to pay less taxes, yet still fund the things that are necessary, like quality roads. Washington as it stands is more than divided than ever. Our state needs a leader who is invested in the prosperity of our state’s future, someone who can unite both sides of the mountains, and willing to govern all 39 counties. Homelessness is a major challenge being presented in King and surrounding counties. This is an issue that everyone’s tax dollars have a stake in, though it could be 200 miles away, and still the problem has not been solved. Either our money is not going where the state says or our current leadership isn’t able to find ways to better the homeless situation. Either way, homelessness needs to be addressed in all counties.

Even more cause for concern with our current leadership, I-976 which would have decreased vehicle tabs to $30, was voted on and passed, then held up in court, not giving the people what they voted for. While similarly, I-1529 which inaccurately portrays all semi-automatic rifles as “assault rifles” is a direct hit to our second amendment rights. These alarming events show us Washingtonians that our voice is dwindling. If you want a governor who you can trust, believe in, and know won’t ignore your votes, remember me, Ian Gonzales, with your primary vote on August 4th.

Statement
Dr. D’Almeida has always been vocal about the inherent treatment of homeless and lack of affordable housing, veterans and foster parents need more psychological support. Housing the homeless and treating their medical issues is cheaper than leaving them on the streets. The money used to clean after the homeless, will be used to house them.

Under this administration unemployment has skyrocketed, homelessness, crime and drug abuse have exploded and public health bureaucrats spent time pushing for heroin injection sites instead of preparing for a pandemic. We need a Governor who will listen to everyone, not just the powerful and well connected. Olympia is working to guide us to a better, stronger and more just future for Washington.

Charter member ofHopelink;coached youth sports; served as an honorary board member of the Washington Wildlife and Recreation Coalition.

Statement
The people of Washington are resilient and deserve leadership that reflects their character. Jay Inslee’s proven experience in difficult times and his successful economic vision are exactly what Washington needs as we rebuild our economy and help families and businesses recover from the pandemic.

The measure of our leaders is how they respond to unexpected crises. When Washington became ground zero in the COVID-19 crisis, Governor Jay Inslee met this health and economic crisis head-on, with bold action based on science and guided by public health experts.

The Ellensburg Daily Record praised Governor Inslee, writing, “in the moment when he has been tested the hardest, Inslee has stepped up, making the tough calls and providing the leadership needed to get this state through the COVID-19 crisis.” The Chair of the University of Washington’s Department of Global Health praised Inslee’s leadership for “having saved countless lives.”

Under Inslee’s leadership, Washington recovered from the last great recession to become the country’s #1 rated economy, and our state is poised to rebound more quickly thanks to the Governor’s progressive policies. Our state has the nation’s best Pat Family and Medical Leave, we have expanded health care coverage to 800,000 Washingtonians and created a long-term care benefit for seniors that puts us in a better position to address public health dangers and immediate economic hardship.

Inslee’s CanCer Connect program provides on-site training and apprenticeships for thousands of students who have plans other than four-year college and his investments in forward-thinking renewable energy industries have prepared us to endure and recover from the economic pain so many are now living through.

Governor Inslee’s steady leadership and pioneering vision make him exactly the governor we need now to guide us to a better, stronger and more just future for Washington.

Community Service
Worked under the direction Of Norrell and Betty Carpenter for many years with the Warren Avenue PoleWaves, a very good cause.

Statement
I am choosing to run for Governor of the Great state of Washington because I believe it is time for change. I see money for the homeless, yet our homeless population does not diminish. I see money spent on the schools, yet the districts are widely unequal. Poor districts do not have the computers and laptops that the wealthier districts have, even as technology becomes more vital to our children's education. I am very concerned that we are overtaxed and our money is being misapplied.

Many want to spend effort and money to focus on all of the state's problems. I want to create new solutions for those problems. I want to live in a state where men and women who work their 8-hour day -40 hour work week have the health insurance they need. The middle class fuels the economy in our state and I want to protect that. Under my leadership you would see these changes in policy.

At the top of my list I want to create equality in education for every district. I will apply common sense to the validity and effectiveness of each program and determine if they produce adequate results relative to their cost. As Governor, I will prioritize a balanced budget. As one of the most overtaxed states I want to bring our state back into focus and lower our spending to a reasonable level with the ultimate goal of lowering state taxes for all.

For the sake of the future of you and your children please vote.

Thank you
Richard Carpenter

Community Service

Statement
Unity, Prosperity, Honor these are the things we bring to Washington. They are the hallmarks of a stable, reliable government and a functioning society. These three things will bring Washington into a new golden age. With them, we can create “a city on the Hill” to the rest of our nation!

Unity’s a powerful hopeful word, especially because today we live divided. From our state to our families and communities. Red and Blue, a Donkey and an Elephant. We let these things define us and divide us. Why? Is that the Washington we want? I don’t think so. Cooperation and unity between the major parties. Working together despite our differing opinions to build a better, unified Washington. That’s what Washington needs and what’s fit bringing.

Prosperity, how you go about bringing prosperity? I believe prosperity comes from these things the land, the People, and the Schools. The land is our natural resources, our farms, our fruit, and our seas. The people are our culture, our businesses, and our dreams. Last. schools are how we teach our young people. To be independent, resourceful, insightful, courageous, and honorable. Instead of baring them to death, I want to create a love of learning and life long growth. Not just ensuring a better education but a better economy as companies flock to our superior workforce.

Finally, Honor, Honor, is everything. It means leaders you can trust. Politicians, working towards what’s best for the people, never being bought, always leading from the front, and doing the hard job no one else will. A state where people are always worried about the integrity of their leaders can never move forward. Because if you can’t believe that the other side is saying, you can never understand each other.

My previous 8 campaigns have never been to win but to tell voters Sound Transit should’ve never been allowed to spend billions adding Prop 1 extensions to Central Link. Now it’s only a question of whether it’s the Northgate operation in 2021 or East Link in 2023 that vindicate my concern.

This year it’s to debunk claim fossil emissions are an existential threat. That Al Gore’s “Inconvenient Truth” is in fact a monumental lie. Ice core temperatures from four prior interglacial periods were higher than current levels with 300 ppm CO2 for lower than current 410 ppm. That during those periods the CO2 level was the result of increased out gasssing from ocean when temperatures were warming and increased dissolution when temperatures were cooling. Both warming and cooling were driven by the Sun.

It was the Sun that raised temperatures and CO2 levels after the last ice age, culminating in the Medieval Warming Period, Little Ice Age, and subsequent warming prior to significant fossil emissions. The increased fossil emissions have added to the Sun’s impact on CO2 over the last 100 years raising level to the current 410 ppm.

However it’s the Sun not higher CO2 levels from increasing fossil emissions that has significantly increase global temperatures. The ~5 gigaton carbon (GtC) annual fossil emissions currently increase CO2 by ~2ppm. If emissions averaged 10 GtC over the next 50 years the additional 500 GtC would add 200 ppm taking the current level from 410 to 610 ppm, or from 0.041 to 0.061%, still a tiny fraction of the 96.5% CO2 that warms the Earth.

My campaign and stopeastlinknow blog are to expose the futility of adding trillions more in an attempt to limit global warming by reducing that increase.

I wholeheartedly vow to fight for you and to be everyone’s representative. I will focus on issues that matter to each of us. Let’s improve our quality of life. Let’s focus on reducing state taxes and increasing household incomes. Let’s focus on clean but also affordable energy.

Let’s focus on fixing our homework issues and reforming our family court system. Let’s focus on upholding our “Bill of Rights.” There is nothing “normal-sounding” about giving up our rights. Let’s focus on election integrity reform and replacing fake representatives. These are just a few examples.

Unfortunately our state government as well as the state parties have been heavily infiltrated by fake representatives. There are also too many manipulated candidates. Sadly, some were even recruited to run against me. This is because I am your only non-Ar-reminded Lt. Governor candidate. Help me to help us. Let’s fix it; people over party, liberty first, “A United Washington.”

Statement
My young children’s years of pointed questions about people living alongside our roads, clearly needing help, caused me to do a lot of research and question our current politicians. Even to kids, it was obvious that something was wrong. I had worked in a UN refugee camp where people had lost everything. Feeding violence; yet, it was more hygienic and humane than my hometown. Unable to find plausible explanations and wanting better for Washington, I had to speak out.

Time depletes measures coming out of Olympia are one-sided and unbalanced. Current politicians throw money at problems first, asking questions later–this must stop. They’ve been in power so long they’ve forgotten to listen to neighbors or manage their spending. They cannot tax our way back to health from our current crisis. I’ll provide the critical check and balance we’ve lost, being a leader who seeks compassionate solutions while protecting taxpayers.

I will bring the fresh perspective dearly needed in Olympia. We need a Lt. Governor fighting for families and businesses, not more of the same government approach. Let’s get this right for our children’s tomorrow, as well as their today.

Top issues: fiscal responsibility, political balance, homelessness, addiction & mental health, public safety

Statement
Washington State Senators and other Legislators will be treated fairly by me as Lt. Governor. Everyone wins. When ideas are shared and economic activity grows, then the public can prosper and have faith in the future. Quality government requires that respectful battles must take place.

In 1982, As Secretary General, I led a mock United Nations gathering of students representing over 185 Countries. We passed legislation that had not been accomplished for over ten years by other students. Part of this success is respecting all kinds of people with different values and religious beliefs and getting them to agree on a common course.

The Lt. Governor will be the Leader of the Senate and must convey a sense of harmony and calm to the members. Relaxed and happy people are civil to each other and work together on fixing serious problems like the coronavirus. I have legal and formal education to do the job. I will stand behind legislation that protects children, improves education, improves environmental protections and makes good common sense. As a child, I went to the very accepting and loving First Christian Church near the Fair in Puyallup.

Michelle Jasmer will become Washington’s First Woman Lieutenant Governor

Raised in Orting, Washington, Michelle is a grassroots inspirational leader in government and business. With Portuguese, African and Irish heritage, Michelle serves all people equally. As a single mother raising three daughters, Michelle put herself through Bachelor’s, Master’s and Doctorate programs. As an experienced organizational president, she is a prepared parliamentarian. Michelle built a financial firm and created over 80 jobs for Washingtonians. Michelle is equipped to lead Washington to economic healing through innovative job development.

Michelle’s policy initiatives are rights for women and children. When women own homes, there is less child abuse and less domestic violence. Michelle supports people healing from disparity through access to home ownership by expanding Washington’s down payment assistance programs. She advocates increased rental assistance to address homelessness. Michelle is addicted to positivity and promotes collaborative and inclusory decision making.

Michelle supports tuition free college and vocational programs for all students through multiple pathways.
Michelle advocates improved services for those living with developmental disabilities and mental illness.
Michelle is a teacher and published author on Innovation and Transformational Leadership. Michelle supports businesses becoming environmentally sustainable and seeks innovative technology to make this into reality.

Statement
The main duty of the Lieutenant Governor is to preside over the State Senate.

Since I am not a member of either the Republican or Democratic Parties, I am uniquely qualified to be the most practical and impartial referee facilitating discussion in the State Senate. The best solutions are created through explanations from multiple perspectives. I will give voice to all sides of the issues.

As someone who hasn’t received donations from big money special interests, I am likewise best suited to carry out the duties of Rules Committee Chair. Only a ‘gatekeeper’ that isn’t beholden to those special interests can ensure the voice of the people is heard in the Senate.

While serving as our Lieutenant Governor, I will make sure legislation is openly debated and that bills are fair, clean, and on topic. I will seek ways to make the legislative process more accessible to the citizens. If you feel your elected representative is not listening, you can contact me directly. I am the Lieutenant Governor we all need, and I am asking for your support and your vote. Together, we can break partisan gridlock and keep the Senate on track serving the people of Washington.

Education
I was born and raised in Washington. As a 10th grade dropout with a GED, I had to work from the bottom up. Having worked in forestry and construction, then a decade as a aircraft Rescue Fire Fighter and finally, a career in the aviation field. I have great respect for hard work and understand the value of a hard earned dollar. I’m grateful for those who mentored me along this journey and now ask for your vote to become your Lieutenant Governor.

Statement
As your most experienced candidate for Lieutenant Governor, I bring 45 years of award winning achievement to this position (Joint Base Lewis McChord Civilian Hall of Fame recipient, National Wrestling Hall of Fame inductee, Washington State House of Representatives Veterans Legislator of the Year, Town of Steilacoom Citizen of the year and many more). My elections are based on common sense conservatism, science based environmental stewardship, and the belief in local control of decisions and resources is usually best. People create jobs, not big government. I support the voter approved $30 vehicle tax ballot initiative. I am actively supporting the repeal of Enraged Substitute Senate Bill 5365, the K-12 Education Law which was recently enacted by our state legislature. I oppose any proposed version of a state income tax. I am an active proponent of our bill of rights, especially our 1st and 2nd amendments. We need to continue to defend our property rights, a basic human right which makes our capitalist system work. I am a defender of life, I am Pro-Life. Property taxes are already too high. Statement
As a lifelong Washingtonian and Democrat, I’ve served at every level of government and been committed to promoting values of a more fair and just economic system, a strong public education system, and a commitment to our environment to ensure generations to come will be able to enjoy the peerless natural beauty of our state. I will continue to champion these causes while fulfilling the other duties constitutionally assigned as Lieutenant Governor.

With your continued trust, this office can ensure we don’t roll back the progress we have worked so hard for in Washington State. We have an opportunity to build a state that is better than it was before and not sacrifice our most vulnerable in the name of progress.

I’m honored by the numerous former and current elected state and community leaders, environmentalists, labor and business leaders, and so many other of our neighbors that have chosen to support our campaign and our vision for a better future. I ask for your support.

Statement
Many recognize the flaws in our elections, and we know these flaws create imperfections in government. We should never limit to choosing the lesser of two evils when voting in our diverse state -- and compromise, empathy, and respect should be encouraged in government. If you agree, even partially, please visit edminger.com.

As a candidate I refuse to purchase advertising. Beyond that, I offer new, strategic, nonpartisan ideas.

First, reduce the expectation of two-party victories by allowing 3-5 people to compete for your vote. Implement approval voting to end fears of wasting a vote on your true preferences. Second, special interests and donors purchase preferential access to leaders, and they're understandably concerned about losing access. Don't fight them. Prohibit candidates from running paid advertising, and the necessity for donations will fall tremendously.

I have a handful of other ideas around one goal: making our representative government more representative. That's it. I don't blame people, parties, or special interests. The flaws in our elections have created imperfections in our government. When we improve elections, officials will be free to become their best selves. —Your visit to edminger.com is a critical step towards addressing our shared beliefs.

Statement
As Secretary of State, my most critical responsibility is to inspire public confidence in Washington’s elections. We achieve that when access and security are balanced. That’s why we created a secure statewide voter registration system to implement accessible same-day voter registration; established the first Elections Security Operations Center to respond to foreign interference and cybersecurity threats; and coordinated the efforts to purchase preferential access to leaders, and they’re understandably concerned about losing access. Don’t fight them. Prohibit candidates from running paid advertising, and the necessity for donations will fall tremendously.

I have a handful of other ideas around one goal: making our representative government more representative. That’s it. I don’t blame people, parties, or special interests. Gentry Lange
(Prefers Progressive Party)

Elected Experience
PCO

Other Professional Experience
Gentry Lange is a small business owner, political activist, ardent spokesman for voting reform, with a background in Internet Technologies. In 2004, he was the campaign manager for Andy Stephenson, a voting activist candidate for Secretary of State, a campaign for Washington Secretary of State that broke the rules and was featured in the film, “Hacking Democracy” by HBO. He has written about voting integrity issues for over 10 years and is the Director of the No Vote By Mail Project.

Education
University of Washington, Political Science

Community Service
Voting Integrity Activist and Independent Journalist

Statement
If you elect Secretary of State, I pledge to kick corporations out of the vote counting system, reclaim public ownership of elections, and restore the secret ballot. I will use this campaign, and the position of Secretary of State, to champion economic recovery for small businesses, workers, the unemployed and the marginalized.

Private companies currently control your vote counting software. Clear Ballot, Dominion (formerly Diebold), ES&S, and Hart Interionic, are the four companies in Washington with certified software to count your vote. Your mail ballot is counted by proprietary, trade-secret, software. To fix this, I will implement the use of publicly owned open source software if elected.

For too long, the Secretary of State has been functioning as a marketing and sales position for big corporations. My goal is to focus this position on the economic needs of those who work essential jobs, run small businesses, and do the work vital to our families, our neighbors, and our communities.

Government is for the people and by the people. It is not for the corporations and by the corporations. It is a time that those running our government understood this and acted in the best interests of the public.

Statement
Voting rights and election security are under attack across the country. In a time of persistent voter suppression and election interference, we need a Secretary of State who will boldly defend every vote and every voter.

I’m running for Secretary of State because I have 30 years of experience as a senior defense intelligence and national security analyst defending our country from attacks. I believe that this office needs a new type of leader to protect our election systems and voter information against current and emerging threats.

Currently, our national and state election officials are putting pressure before our democracy. Our state's top election official has not denounced threats to defund the USPS and condemn danger attacks on voting by mail. These threats to election security must not go unchecked. In contrast, as a legislator I've supported every effort to expand voting rights and have passed bipartisan laws to protect elections and election workers for all of us.

The needs of this office have changed. It's time for a new era in Washington state elections. I am prepared to face these challenges and lead through the uncertain times ahead. I am honored to earn your vote.

Community Service
Chair of Banking Committee, National Association of State Treasurers (NAST); Past Vice President Western Region, NAST; Past President, Washington State Association of County Treasurers; Past President, Atomic City Kiwanis and Tri-City Industry Kiwanis; Past Treasurer Tri-City Kiwanis Foundation; former Church Treasurer.

Statement
It is an honor to serve you as State Treasurer. I’m proud of the achievements my office has made with the help of an excellent Treasury team.

I’ve been a strong advocate for an adequately funded Rainy Day Fund and will continue to steadfastly protect pension reserves and work to eliminate the unfunded pension liability. I will continue to advise the legislature on reducing the amount of state debt that is too high. I’m proud of the state debt refinancing that saved the state over $450 million in interest and achieved a triple-A bond rating for the first time in state history. We will continue to expand the programs that help local governments with their financing & investment opportunities and continue to grow the financial literacy program.

Managing public funds should not be subject to partisan politics. That is why I’m proud and honored to have the endorsement of past State Treasurers Mike Murphy and Dan Grimm, both Democrats. Bipartisan support is also evident in the over 50 current and past County Treasurers and County Officials that have endorsed my re-election.

I humbly request your vote to continue the work safeguarding public funds and increasing the transparency of state finances.

Mike Pellicciotti
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
Washington State Representative; House Capital Budget Committee Member.

Other Professional Experience
Mike’s broad experience is needed to lead us through today’s complicated legal financial challenges. An economic crimes prosecutor (Assistant Attorney General), Mike managed a State unit of financial examiners, auditors, and fiscal analysts that returned over $30 million to taxpayers from financial fraud and government waste.

Education
Bachelor’s degree (Business Administration, economics minor); Master of Rural Development (Fulbright Scholar, economic development); Law Degree, Gonzaga.

Community Service
As Washington Equal Justice Coalition Chair, Mike advocated for homeowners unlawfully foreclosed upon, veterans denied benefits, and predatory lending victims. Federal Way Chamber of Commerce. St. Theresa’s Church parishioner.

Statement
Mike will be an independent treasurer who has never accepted corporate campaign donations. He will stop the longtime practice by treasurers of investing in the same corporations that fund their campaigns. Mike will focus on Washington’s economic recovery, instead of these special interests.

A financial transparency champion, Mike led efforts to make the legislature’s records open for public view. He passed laws to expose “dark money” in politics. He wrote the Corporate Crime Act that increases financial penalties by 100 times. The Treasurer’s Office thanked Mike for working to pass laws that improved treasury investments.

Mike will put working families’ and retirees’ needs first. He will fight to return a billion dollars of Washingtonians’ unclaimed money stuck in the treasury back into your hands. Mike opposes a personal income tax and successfully supported laws reducing property taxes.

The son of educators, Mike will keep a watchful eye on your $100 billion pension investments. He won’t miss required Investment Board meetings. Mike will personally attend all of these critical Investment Board meetings. Endorsed by: Washington Education Association, State Nurses Association, State Labor Council, Washington Conservation Voters, Senator Patty Murray and leaders throughout Washington.

Auditor

Joshua Casey
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
King County Personnel Board, 2019-Present

Other Professional Experience
I am the only candidate who holds a CPA license, the highest standard of competence in the audit industry. To obtain a CPA license, one must possess a specialized education, have relevant experience, and have passed both ethical and technical examinations. I also have over a decade of auditing and accounting experience, including leading and managing teams for two of the largest and most well-respected audit firms globally — Deloitte and PwC Waterhouse/Coopers.

Education
Master’s Degree, Information Systems & Operations Management, University of Florida; Bachelor’s Degree, Accounting, University of Florida

Community Service
Volunteer Income Tax Assistant, Junior Achievement

Statement
We deserve a leader with both management and technical expertise who can lead the agency to modernize the audit process. We deserve a leader who does not have deep political ties preventing him from maintaining independence and objectivity. We deserve a leader who understands and will implement industry best practices. Most importantly, we deserve a leader who knows how an auditor should lead before, during, and after a crisis. I am that leader.

In fast moving situations, leaders must understand their capabilities and be decisive. They must also have the professional knowledge and experience to justify their decisions. An early window appeared during the pandemic where quick and decisive leadership may have helped to identify some of the weak spots in government. For example, an audit of the state’s unemployment office may have identified deficiencies in preventing the estimated hundreds of millions in fraud. This was a missed opportunity to provide accountability. As a CPA and a proven leader who has routinely made these types of decisions, I have the experience to be the effective leader we need.

Washingtonians no longer need to choose between leadership and expertise. I will bring both to this office.

Chris Leyba
(Prefers Republican Party)

Elected Experience
No information submitted

Other Professional Experience
I spent 11 years as a police officer and detective. 3 years of this as a law enforcement performance auditor. Previously, I ran a grocery department with approximately 50 employees and $450-500K sales per week.

Education
I obtained my B.S. in Molecular Biology from UW in 2007. I am also finishing my MBA in Finance from WSU. Additionally, I held several professional certifications through my job in law enforcement, including a performance auditor certification from ILEAA.

Community Service
I operate an animal rescue called Secondhand Hearts on our farm and also rescue horses from kill pens across Washington.

Statement
The State Auditor’s Office deserves someone who will finally unlock its full potential to serve Washington. This position has a real role in oversight of your public dollars, but it also has the power to perform auditing that can change the way government agencies spend that money more efficiently.

I am the candidate in this race that has the most hands on experience with government auditing and government process at the investigative level. I also have perspective on all types of Washington governments instead of those just within our major cities.

We need an auditor that combines all of this experience with a desire to bring lean business practices to the office and to make recommendations in Washington agencies that will create jobs and opportunities across all of our state. Whichever my department can find opportunities for us to spend money on products and materials made by Washington businesses, we will recommend these opportunities be prioritized by our state government.

This November, remember that your auditor should be less about their party and more about their boss. You.

Awards for land conservation, access for justice and open government; Star of Destiny Award, Tacoma Historical Society; Distinguished Alumni Award, University of Washington Tacoma; Secretary of State’s Auditor of the Year, 2003.

Statement
I have had the honor of serving as the elected Washington State Auditor for the past four years. I am proud of being the first woman to hold this position. Prior to State Auditor, I served as Pierce County Executive and Pierce County Auditor; I have a proven and tested public record of leadership.

As State Auditor, it is a privilege to lead over 400 employees working across the state to provide fiscal and accountability audits of all local and state governments. We have increased the number of cyber security and performance audits, while conducting numerous investigations including uncovering the largest fraud on record.

My vision to “increase trust in government” means greater transparency and accountability of public money. To accomplish this goal, I have created a user-friendly, interactive website that gives you important information about each government that serves you. Having an independent, objective review of public dollars is the heart and soul of my work at the State Auditor’s Office.

I have been endorsed by many people and organizations, which are listed at my website: www.palmccarthyaudit.com. I am seeking re-election to this important job and ask for your support.

Statement
I am running to be your Attorney General because as a lifelong Washingtonian and father of four little kids, I know that they deserve a better, safer Washington. Everyone agrees that the homeless situation in our cities has spiraled out of control, and no one is doing anything about it. This is unacceptable! For 8 years, homelessness, drug abuse, and crime have been on the rise. As Attorney General, I will make this a priority. I am dedicated to making sure law enforcement and first responders have the tools, training, and resources they need to do their job well.

As an owner of a 3rd generation manufacturing company, I understand the struggles that Washington businesses face every day, and I will fight to make Washington a more business-friendly state. I am proudly endorsed by a former Washington Attorney General, State Senators, State Legislators, County Sheriffs, First Responders, radio talk show hosts, business owners, community leaders, and many more elected officials from all over the state!

Statement
As the son of a World War II refugee, Mike understands what tough times are like. People are hurting. True leadership is rare. Decisions impacting our lives and livelihoods are guided by partisanship and not the rule of law. It’s time we changed that.

As your Attorney General, Mike Vaska will protect the Evergreen State, not advance a partisan agenda. He’s the only candidate with decades of legal experience, which he’ll use to improve public safety, protect consumers, and be an independent check on state power.

State government must take an all-hands approach to rebuilding our economy by supporting small businesses, farmers, and all workers. Mike will convene a “Create Jobs Now” task force to streamline permitting and reduce regulatory burdens.

Mike will demand results to end our state’s homelessness and public safety crisis, bringing people together to find real solutions — not relying on the past’s failed policies.

Mike has earned bipartisan support from statewide leaders we trust like Governor Dan Evans, Attorney General Bob McFadden, former Congressmen Dave Reichert and Slid Malmgren, and local leaders like Spokane County Commissioner Mary Kuney, Snohomish County Chair Nate Nehring, and Vancouver business leader Arin Donnelly. Please join them with your vote.

Mike Ferguson
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
- Eight years as Attorney General. An independent leader, Bob manages Washington’s largest law office.

Other Professional Experience
- Bob began his legal career in Spokane. He served as a law clerk for two federal judges appointed by presidents of both parties. He worked as an attorney advocating for taxpayers and businesses at Preston, Gates & Ellis.

Education
- Law Degree, New York University; B.A., University of Washington

Community Service
- Bob and his family are active in St. Catherine’s Church. He served in the Jesuit Volunteer Corps managing an emergency services office aiding vulnerable clients. Central Area Mission Program volunteer. Advocated for Tyapi Initiative as a law student.

Statement
A fourth-generation Washingtonian, husband and father, Bob Ferguson takes on powerful interests, protects taxpayers, and prosecutes violent crime.

Bob brings more consumer protection cases to court than all previous Attorney Generals — and hasn’t lost. Bob beat Comcast in hall. Now they’re paying millions for ripping off Washingtonians. He’s protecting consumers from price gouging by pharmaceutical companies and prosecuting corporations that defraud taxpayers. He made corporations that acted illegally pay more than $500 million to taxpayers, including $170 million in direct payments to Washingtonians.

Bob created a new Environmental Protection Division to protect clean air and water. He stopped hazardous waste dumping in Puget Sound and protected Washington’s coast from offshore oil drilling. Bob is independent. He vigorously enforces campaign transparency laws against both parties. Son of a public school teacher and Boeing employee, Bob works for you — he refutes campaign contributions from large corporations.

Statement
In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. If elected, I will direct an independent, state funded study of the effects of 5G cell-phones towers upon living things. My research indicates that this radiation is killing trees, birds, honey bees, human life.

I will deconstruct 4 Hydro-electric dams in the Columbia River. This will allow salmon to return to their natural habitat eliminating the need for unhealthy salmon farms and saving the state hundreds of millions of dollars per year.

I will stand with Washington farmers against the radical policies of the EPA. I will allow livestock grazing on state land. I will allow sportfishing year-round. I will stop chemicals in Washington state. I am against Bio-mass use for electricity. I am against the use of wind power. I am against coal trains. I am against massive solar power arrays farms. I am against the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, eugenics, Satan, New World Order. I will and clear-cutting of timber, and allow only selective timber cultivation. I am against offshore oil drilling. I believe public lands should remain public and should not be sold. I am against the “Green New Deal”.

Hilary Franz
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
Commissioner of Public Lands 2017-present; Bainbridge Island City Council 2008-2011; served on Puget Sound Transportation Futures Task Force; Puget Sound Regional Council Economic Development Board; and Puget Sound Salmon Recovery Council.

Other Professional Experience
Nonprofit Executive Director 2011-2015, developing solutions to statewide natural-resource and economic development issues. Attorney, representing communities, local governments, tribes, unions, and nonprofits on agriculture, forests, fish and wildlife, aquatics, and labor issues.

Education
JD, Northeastern University; BA, Smith College.

Community Service
Former board member of Conservation Northwest and Washington Environmental Council.

Statement
Hilary Franz is proud to serve as Commissioner of Public Lands. She is relentless in creating bold, transformational change. As the leader of Washington’s wildlife fighting force, Hilary pushed for new strategies to reach fires quickly and keep them small. She then secured record-setting funding for our wildland firefighters.

Hilary is a defender of our public lands. When the federal government tried to open our waters to offshore drilling, Hilary refused to allow drilling equipment to cross our coastline. In the face of climate change, Hilary is pushing for environmentally-backed reform that isn't based on personal feelings or corporate desires but rather objectively with science. It is time to remind our citizens that they hold the power in our nation. Elected officials should be honored to represent you and work for you, but understand that they do not rule over you nor should they act without taking accountability for their actions.

Education
Graduated from Green River Community College, studying biology, chemistry and environmental science. Pursuing a degree in Agriculture Education with an emphasis on sustainability and ecology.

Community Service
Volunteering through my daughters’ school, helping with the local river restoration and clean-up efforts to local parks.

Statement
These days, partisan politicians have become overbearing and lost the original purpose of this country’s core mission statement: To promote the liberty, freedom, and the ability to pursue happiness for the American public.

Kelsey Reyes, will ensure partisan politics has no place in our public lands and that we will continue to push for environmentally-backed reform that isn’t based on personal feelings or corporate desires but rather objectively with science.

I, Kelsey Reyes, will deconstruct 4 Hydro-electric dams in the Columbia River. This will allow salmon to return to their natural habitat eliminating the need for unhealthy salmon farms and saving the state hundreds of millions of dollars per year.

Community Service
Board Member, Small Faces Child Development Center; Board Member, Ghana Together; Board Member, Commencement Bay Rowing Club (youth program).

Statement
Our public lands have been ravaged by natural disasters including tree infestations and forest fires. They’ve also been damaged by a political disaster: state managers that have focused on serving special interest groups instead of providing for taxpayers, school districts, and outdoor recreational enthusiasts.

No more policy-by-press-conference, or angling for higher political office. It’s time for new leadership. Sue is running to bring that new leadership to DNR, the agency responsible for managing our state’s 3 million acres of trust land.

Informed by a lifetime of managing natural resources, Sue will work to ensure that Washington’s working forests continue to provide a steady, reliable stream of income for our public schools. We’ll do this by adopting proven forest management techniques that reduce disease and excess fuel loads in our forests, which accelerate devastating forest fires. Sue will use her experience as a UW and NOAA fisheries and habitat biologist to strike the right balance between protecting wildlife and protecting Washington’s forest economy.

Raised in rural Washington, Sue has a distinguished career in natural resource management, including service as a regulatory liaison for a major hydropower construction project. She has raised two adult children and survived breast cancer.

Community Service

Statement
My deepest concern is the selling of our state to the highest bidder. Amazon and Weyerhaeuser will not buy me and I will not give up on the people of Washington. If we heal our politics, we can heal the PNW. We have to look deeper into the relationship our policies have on land use and the laws of nature in order to heal the land, sea, and animals.

The land cannot speak for itself, the animals are being ignored, and many people of our state are forgotten. I would like to give a voice, even if they are not Democrats. Our indigenous brothers and sisters have been mistreated since European explorers first set foot on this land. I intend on giving them their autonomy back and helping them to restore the land, water, and wildlife of this state.

Part of healing the land is healing our economy. Restoration ecology and permaculture are vital to the survival of the PNW. I believe in the GND and that organic hemp farming is a way to create living wage jobs for our people and end our addiction to petroleum and clear cutting.

Superintendent of Public Instruction

Ron Higgins
Nonpartisan

Elected Experience

Other Professional Experience
Certified Math Teacher, Washington and California: 10 years teaching in 7 Washington districts and inner-city Los Angeles (public and charter schools; urban, rural, vocational); and alternative schools, all grades K-12, all subjects, including Math/English (Spanish and Russian) and special education. Retired engineer, Marine Corps Vietnam veteran helicopter pilot, retired Marine Corps Reserve Lt. Colonel.

Education
MS, Chemical Engineering, University of Washington; MS, University of West Florida; BS, Cal Poly; licensed professional engineer.

Community Service
Union Gospel Mission: Boy Scout Leader; Red Cross blood platelet donor; youth soccer referee; school bus driver.

Statement
I’m Ron Higgins, the conservative candidate for Washington State Superintendent of Public Instruction. I’m a teacher, an engineer, and a retired Marine. I’m pro-life, pro-family, pro-Second Amendment, pro-property rights, and pro-free enterprise.

Having taught in Washington State schools for 10 years, I know our schools are failing our children. I’ve met high school students who didn’t know how to add fractions or what the words “algebra” and “algebraism” mean, seen Reef propaganda in our schools (e.g., favorable portrayal of Communist leader Juan Guaido), and dealt with bureaucrats who didn’t want me to hand students copies of the US Constitution.

Our schools should be teaching the communication, computation, and critical thinking skills children need to become productive citizens. As Superintendent, I will emphasize instruction in basic academic subjects, healthy lifestyles, and respect for the United States, our Constitution, and our God-given civil and religious liberties. I strongly support parental rights to homeschool. I vigorously oppose “comprehensive sex education” and any curriculum that promotes or glamorizes unhealthy behavior or the sexualization of children.

We need common sense, not common core; education, not indoctrination. Vote Ron Higgins to put the public back in charge of public education.

Education
MS, Curriculum and Instruction, Western Governors University, BBA, Pacific Lutheran University; AA, Running Start, Pierce College; Clover Park HS, attended a dozen public schools nationwide.

Community Service
Center for Latino Leadership Director; Youth Soccer Coach; School Auction Chair; Coffee Oasis youth shelter Core Team Member; Tacoma Arts Live Board Member; Catholic Daughters Association; Civil Air Patrol, PLU Business Network Board.

Statement
Our schools are facing a defining moment. Teachers aren’t happy, families are stressed, students are struggling, and the opportunity gap is widening. The delivery of public education has changed dramatically, and we’ve been forced to adapt. Now is our chance to reimagine a better education system because the status quo is no longer an option.

To improve our school system, we need to: use technology to innovate classrooms and unlock possibilities for more personalized learning; provide school schedules that fit the needs of working families and teachers; and teach students key life skills like managing finances, living independently, and resolving conflicts.

With kids of my own in public schools, I support parental choice and local control. Meanwhile, nearly half of Washington’s students are failing to meet state standards in core subjects. I am endorsed by parents, teachers, and school board members across Washington because I respect community input.

I am running for Superintendent because I believe our kids deserve better and can achieve more. If elected, we will update our school system to meet the needs of families, teachers, and the future economy.

Statement
This election is important to the future of our Republic. The purpose of public instruction is to help children and young adults to become enlightened citizens. Given the disordered state we are living in, it seems obvious that educational policy must be clarified. Our mistake is surrendering our sovereignty of thought to Eastern and European elite academics who are so out of touch these days that day laborers have more common sense.

How else to explain the failure of billions of dollars a year, decade after decade, on “education” that we spend leaving us in this mess? Sometimes I think it would be better to just start all over from 555 BC with a Pythagorean Academy, since it’s been all downhill in the common sense department since then. It’s so bad that now the experts routinely fail us, whether they be scientific, educators, lawyers, doctors, journalists, and politicians. Where will our children be in 2030 and 2047? If they are to be happy and free, they must learn to love mathematics, physics, language and history. Every human being is born with the divine spark of intelligence. My job will be to provide constructive guidance to our teachers.

As Director of SBAC Test, a nonprofit devoted to economic prosperity, I developed a curriculum for teaching students how to start their own business and build their own business website. I am also a leader of Opt Out Washington, an organization opposed to the diabolical SBAC test.

Statement
As a parent and teacher, I understand how crucial it is that every child has an experienced teacher and a safe school environment. But I also think it was wrong for Olympia bureaucrats to shut down every school in our state regardless of the circumstances in each local school district.

It makes no sense to shut down schools for months at a time when there is not even a single case of any child in any school anywhere in our state transmitting the corona virus to any adult. The closure decision should have been left to local school boards — as it has always been in the past.

The scientific research has been clear: thanks to their remarkable immune systems, children were never a risk to adults. Yet our schools were closed for months simply because hapless bureaucrats in Olympia believed inaccurate studies claiming millions of people were going to die unless all of our schools were closed. In fact, through May, about 600 fewer people died in Washington this year than last year!

I am running for Superintendent to restore common sense to Olympia and local control to our public schools. Please visit our website for more information!

Statement
Why pick Wick for Superintendent?
We can all agree: Education is a core value so important that it's written into our state's constitution. With the exception of the quarantine, educating our students today looks much like it did when Washington's constitution was ratified in 1889. The same can't be said for today's world, changes come faster with each new day. I believe that we can do a better job preparing our students to meet tomorrow's opportunities.

Decisions I made as school board director always contained the answer to the question: "How does this benefit our students?" I will do the same as your state superintendent. I will ensure we focus our attention on that most important educational relationship: the one between the teacher and the student. I know how school districts operate and will ensure that they effectively and efficiently deliver a quality education to our students. As an adjunct instructor, I have had real world experience teaching students online from around the world.

My vision is to eliminate "good schools" from real estate ads because every school in Washington will be a wonderful place to learn. Please join me as we shape the future of education in Washington state.

Statement
Thank you Washington voters, I am grateful to serve as your State Superintendent. We have achieved so much together: Record graduation rates with more rigorous course taking; Dual language learning is expanding; Supports for students with disabilities are growing rapidly; College courses are increasing in our high schools, saving families tens of millions of dollars in tuition; Civics is a graduation requirement again; Career and technical education is now a graduation pathway option; School construction is at an all-time high, creating thousands of jobs; Teachers are finally earning competitive market salaries; and healthcare has been expanded to thousands of additional school employees.

We have major work ahead of us: 1) Emerge from COVID-19 better connected; 2) Enhance mental health and other student supports; 3) Improve kindergarten readiness; 4) Build more career and technical education programs; and 5) We must ensure that rural communities have equitable access to educational resources.

It will take experienced leadership to maintain our investments and further improve student achievement. I am the first Superintendent in more than 30 years to have kids in public school during my service. I am endorsed by Washington’s Teachers! I would be honored to earn your vote.

Statement
I am running for Commissioner to protect my family and yours from government and insurance corruption. For decades Washington families have been affected by rising rates, increasing deductibles and lack of choice with insurance.

Under my leadership, we will increase choices for health insurance plans including health sharing memberships and reduce costs. For the diverse needs Washingtonians we need diverse solutions. I support allowing insurance to be purchased across state and national lines, creating a la carte options, catastrophic coverages, reducing taxes on insurance and healthcare and putting patients in control.

I will abolish mandatory credit-checks on insurance, make it easier for new cost saving plans to be sold in WA and bring back legal defense insurance. I oppose career politicians and support term limits. Politicians get paid insurance to be purchased across state and national lines, creating a la carte options, catastrophic coverages, and reduce costs. For the diverse needs Washingtonians we need diverse solutions. I support allowing insurance to be purchased across state and national lines, creating a la carte options, catastrophic coverages, reducing taxes on insurance and healthcare and putting patients in control.

(Prefers Republican Party)

Elected Experience
This would be my first elected position as I am of age to hold office now.

Other Professional Experience
Fully licensed Insurance Agent with Property, Casualty, Life and Disability Insurance Licenses. Have been involved in the industry for 21 years.

Education
I going to use the O.I.C. to acquire and manage 168 students as I need in order to major in Every Degree at UW

Statement
My name is Chirayu “Rayu” Patel and I am an autistic savant who has extensive knowledge and the many of the abilities of the President Reagan and President Jefferson that will incorporate into running the O.I.C. eminently like the Reagan Administration and Internally within WA as the Jefferson Administration. I am the first and only candidate who has ever run to be Insurance Commissioner to be able to de-code classified material based on publicly available information and incorporate that knowledge into running the Office of Insurance Commissioner in a way that it has never been run before. I also have the ability to disproportionately affect the entire global Insurance industry from the state of Washington itself. I am elected Insurance Commissioner. My plan is to use my innate God given abilities to oversee the revolution of the entire global insurance industry.

As for Internally, within the state of Washington I will find 7/8 of the most qualified Honorable Insurance Agents to each serve in 1 hour increments as Internal Insurance Commissioners of Washington state on a voluntary basis so that the office will be running 24/7/365. That is how the Jeffersonian Counterbalance to stabilize the Affordable Care Act will be achieved in time.

Additionally, I am fully willing and prepared to work with the either the Trump or Biden Administration. A Brand New Checkmate!

Mike Kreidler
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
Mike Kreidler has served with distinction as Insurance Commissioner since 2001. Mike also served as a school board member, State Representative, State Senator and U.S. Congressmain.

Other Professional Experience
Mike worked as a Doctor of Optometry for 20 years. He was a small business owner and served as Director of Region 10 for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Education
Mike earned a Doctor of Optometry degree from Pacific University and a master’s degree in public health from UCLA.

Community Service
Mike is a retired Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army Reserves. He has been a member of a number of community service organizations.

Statement
Mike Kreidler is a strong and independent voice who continues to stand up to powerful industry interests as an advocate for insurance consumers. In his first five terms as Insurance Commissioner, Mike Kreidler saved consumers in our state over $300 million in auto and homeowners’ insurance by cutting excessive premium rates.

His consumer protection staff has helped thousands of Washingtonians with insurance problems, recovering over $200 million in wrongfully delayed or denied claims. The people of Washington deserve quality health insurance. Mike Kreidler has worked tirelessly to make sure insurance companies can no longer deny coverage. He convinced the Legislature to pass law protecting consumers from receiving surprise medical bills from emergency services.

He will continue working with community, business, and legislative leaders to further improve access to affordable health care and reduce the number of uninsured in our state, especially during their time of greatest need. Mike Kreidler is a proven leader who has served the people of Washington with dedication, fairness and hard work.

He consistently earns endorsements from consumer, labor, business, retiree, educational, health care organizations, and individuals across our state. Please join them in electing Mike Kreidler to another term as Insurance Commissioner.

Art Coday
(Prefers Republican Party)

Elected Experience
Precinct Committee Officer

Other Professional Experience
Art spent six years in biological and heart research. As a primary care doctor, his practice included office visits, home visits, nursing home care, and annual physical evaluations of local firefighters. Most of Art’s patients have been Medicare (seniors, disabled), Medicaid (poor), and uninsured.

Education

Community Service
Art volunteered six years at the Seattle Children’s Orthopedic Hospital Summer Camp, working with children with special medical needs. He served on nonprofit boards.

Statement
Black Art, an experienced doctor and entrepreneur, to protect the vulnerable from coronavirus without injuring you and the economy further.
Art will overhaul Medicaid; after decades, it will finally deliver high quality healthcare to the poor. This requires increased access, doctor participation, and dental care. Improved screening and treatment for mental illness and substance abuse will humanely reduce homelessness and crime.

Art supports substantial improvements to disaster preparedness, including investments in hospitals, law enforcement, and fire and rescue services.

Revising our economy to drive business and job growth requires efficient government, lower taxes, transportation improvements, and less burdensome regulations that better protect workers, consumers, and the environment.

As a father, Art supports safe, properly funded schools that put students, families, and teachers first. Schools must recognize the uniqueness of each student by providing more educational pathways and choices. Art values equality, compassion, truth, justice, increased mutual respect, civility, and a renewed sense of community where everyone belongs and has a voice. Art, lifelong champion of patients, seniors, the weak, the poor, and the little guy, will tenaciously guard your constitutional rights and dignity. Art is honor bound to have your vote.

Statement
We are in challenging times as we deal with the effects of COVID-19 on our community and the economy. As the only statistician in the State Legislature, I will always rely on science, data, and facts to make the best decisions for our personal health and our economy.

Our state is facing difficult budget decisions as the impacts of the shutdown slowed our economy and created record unemployment. As we balance our state budget, our priorities must be protecting our public school system, making sure healthcare is affordable and accessible, and providing a strong social safety net.

This is not a time for partisanship or divisiveness. We need to come together and get people back to work safely, get small businesses growing again, continue attracting world-class companies that bring family wages and good benefits, all while protecting the quality of life we enjoy in the Pacific Northwest.

Bringing my business experience, my data-driven analysis, my state government experience, and our community values to work every day to get our state and our economy back up and running strong again. Statement
We must work together to recover from this coronavirus crisis and get our economy moving again. In my first legislative session, we invested over $200 million to give public health agencies and hospitals the tools they need to help patients recover and unemployment assistance to those who have lost work. I’ll continue to champion investments in public education, affordable housing, protecting our environment and reducing traffic congestion and gun violence. Let’s stop the divisive, partisan politics and get results for the people of Washington State.

State Representative Candidates

State Representative | Legislative District 1 | Position 2

Jeb Brewer
(Prefers Republican Party)

Elected Experience
I'm Jeb Brewer and my family has been proud to call Washington state our home for the past 16 years. Over my career I've held positions supporting the construction and restaurant industries, where much of what I do is working with people to reduce waste, complexity, and cost in their businesses while improving efficiency. I have helped both large fortune 500 companies and small privately owned business, which has given me an understanding of the challenges our economy is now faced with.

Other Professional Experience
Licensed WA State Home Inspector

Education
B.S. Industrial Technology from Colorado State University

Community Service
No information submitted

Statement
Our state is hurting. Our officials have forgotten that government was created to support its people. We have crowded and crumbling roadways, out of control homelessness, and unprecedented unemployment and business closures.

The status quo is not okay. We need to expect results on the taxes we pay. If something is not working, we need to change it and stop wasting resources. We need to do everything possible to make it easier, and safer to build businesses in our state.

Elected Experience
City of Brier Council (6 years)

Other Professional Experience
Accountant and Consultant - 28 years of successful support of small businesses throughout the greater Seattle area, including over 20 years with Catholic Housing Services providing accounting for various affordable housing projects.

Education
B.S. Accounting - Central Washington University

Community Service
Aldenwood Boys & Girls Club - Over 20 years as a youth-coach in a variety of sports

Statement
We have never been as hammered by taxes as we have been in the last few years. With the combination of large increases in Sound Transit taxes and the 30% increase in property taxes, we have been squeezed dry. I will fight to reduce car tabs and stand strong against additional excess taxes, including a new state income tax.

We have been devastated by the current economic times. I will make sure all businesses will have the right environment and government tools to quickly rebound. I thank you for your consideration. Committee to elect Gary Morgan  (206) 915-6006

State Senator | Legislative District 10

Ron Muzzall
(Prefers Republican Party)

Elected Experience
Senator Muzzall was appointed to the Senate and serves on the crucial Health and Long Term Care Committee, where he works to increase Medicaid funding and improve the safety of nursing homes to protect at-risk seniors. Elected Fire Commissioner for North Whidbey Fire and Rescue.

Other Professional Experience
General Manager, 3 Sisters Family Farm; Served 15 years on the board of Stagg Farms Supply, 3 years as Chairman. He also served on the corporate board of Land O’Lakes cooperative.

Education
Washington State University (Go Cougals)

Community Service
Volunteer Firefighter, Island County Weed Control Board, Agricultural Renewal Committee, Island County Farm Bureau, Lutheran Church Council.

Statement
Local. Principled. Homegrown. At the beginning of the year, as COVID-19 was being identified as a threat, Senator Muzzall voted to allocate more than $175 million to provide for testing, nurses, and expanded unemployment benefits to impacted workers. It is that kind of foresight and stable leadership that we need in the Senate as our state faces dramatic budget shortfalls next season.

Senator Muzzall has been here before. He has real life experience dealing with budget crises. We can trust him to fight to protect our priorities like mental health, housing, schools, and caring for the vulnerable.

The Muzzall family has been Whidbey Island residents since 1910. So it’s no surprise how Ron developed a passion for serving his community. Pankamiko politics strains relationships and divides us. But Ron has spent his life engaging in dialogue and working to make his community better. His priorities are the needs of the people he represents. Vote to reelect our hardworking Senator, Ron Muzzall.

“As your Senator, I owe it to you to be conservative in spending your tax dollars, pragmatic in decision-making, and principled in my approach. I hope I’ve earned your vote.” — Senator Ron Muzzall

Ivan Lewis
(Prefers Republican Party)

Elected Experience
Democratic Precinct Committee Officer

Other Professional Experience
I am a small business owner and manager with a decade of experience in early childhood education and educational enrichment. I have had the privilege of working as an EEM evaluator, EEMs agency supervisor, CPR and first aid instructor, roofer, contractor and farmer.

Education
EMT certification, FFI equivalent

Community Service
I am an Eagle Scout and was awarded the Founder’s Award and Medal of Merit through the Boy Scouts of America. I served as a volunteer firefighter and EMT and am currently active with the local democratic party and a founding member of the Young Democrats of Island County.

Statement
These are unprecedented times. This crisis has shown a light on how shaky our economy has become as so many people could not make ends meet within weeks of the pandemic shutdown. It’s time to rebuild our economy with living wage jobs, affordable health care, a move away from fossil fuels, new infrastructure investments and a commitment to affordable housing.

I’ll bring my business experience, my education experiences and my commitment to this community to get our economy running again. By building a thriving middle class, a cleaner environment, and a less divisive politics, we can promote broad economic opportunity for all.

Langley United Methodist Church; Named “Hometown Hero” by South Whidbey Record, 2004

Statement
We deserve a Senator who will look out for our interests. I will use my leadership and experience to give our communities the tools needed to thrive, better access to healthcare services, more affordable workforce housing, addressing the climate crisis, and support for students at all levels of education and training.

Our rural communities need practical solutions to create family wage jobs and economic opportunities while protecting our environment and quality of life. I believe government can best serve us by rethinking one-size-fits-all policies and instead provide ways for communities to enact solutions that work for them.

I’m endorsed by Attorney General Bob Ferguson, Congressman Rick Larsen, elected officials from across the state and political spectrum, local firefighters, nurses and teachers, and over 603 community members who appreciate my strong voice for small business, small towns, families, and our rural communities. I ask for your vote.

Angie Homola
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
Island County Commissioner during the Great Recession. Balanced the budget collaboratively. Increased government transparency, affordable housing, job opportunities, veterans’ services, and workers’ rights. Protected public safety, senior citizen programs, mental healthcare services, and the environment.

Other Professional Experience
Architect and small business owner. Former carpenter, machinist, laborer.

Education
BS in Architecture, Washington State University. To plan for future generations, and to secure a just transition to renewable energy, earned a Masters in Environmental Law and Policy.

Community Service
Founded a nonprofit promoting community participation, smart land use planning, and environmental protections; taught enrichment courses in public schools; endorsed by Washington Conservation Voters and Washington Education Association.

Statement
Whidbey Island has been my home for 23 years. With my husband, recently retired Naval Aviator, we built our home and raised our children.

My interest in elected office began 17 years ago, when, as a whistleblower, I exposed a government official’s abuse of office. I was elected county commissioner and served the common good. In the wake of COVID19 we must have forward thinking legislature with a record of providing and improving vital public services during hard times. I offer experience, accountability, and compassion to represent effectively the remarkable people and beautiful places in our district.

Statement
Send A Nurse To Olympia!
I’ve dedicated my life to caring for people in this community. I know firsthand how critical it is to protect our vulnerable seniors, and kids, make healthcare accessible, affordable and invested in public health. As a daily commuter from Whidbey to Snohomish County, I will advocate for our families and a Healthy Puget Sound. As we recover from COVID19, we need leaders making decisions based on real world expertise. I demand lower taxes for families and small businesses and creation of quality jobs in our communities. Scott McMullen
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
Mount Vernon City Council, 2004-2012

Other Professional Experience
US Air Force, Master Sergeant (Retired); Boeing Company, Firefighter

Education
Associates Degree, Pierce College; National Fire Academy Rescue, Fire Officer IV; Texas A&M University.

Community Service
I’m running for office for the same reason that I’ve dedicated my professional and private life to public service: I love this community. In addition to serving on boards and commissions including Skagit County Community Action, Skagit County Care and Justice Committee, and the Skagit Transportation Board, I’ve volunteered with YMCA Children’s Programs, Kiwanis Club, Cub Scouts of America, Jefferson Elementary Parents Group, and as a volunteer firefighter.

Statement
While serving on active duty in the Air Force, I pulled a pilot from a burning jet that had malfunctioned on landing. That was the start of my Air Force career and my lifelong commitment to service. I’m running for Legislature now because, more than ever, we need elected officials who put service to others ahead of political interests. I served on City Council during the last recession, and had to make tough choices to balance the budget without cutting critical services. I’ll work for jobs, the environment, public health, and safety. I humbly ask for your vote.

Statement
Principles important to me include sustainable solutions, open communication, collaborative teamwork and non-partisan perspective. We live in a special, beautiful pocket on Mother Earth. Unsurprisingly, population growth is fast leading our region to an inevitable crossroads: urban sprawl or environmental conservation. I will fight to preserve our territorial, wildlife and waterways, advocating measures to restore salmon runs. Improved implementation of infrastructure projects will encompass blueprints to minimize our carbon footprint. We need better and affordable education, ensuring free access to quality public education preK through AA degree. I am eager to hear from you concerning issues and pragmatic solutions.

Statement
Coronavirus has highlighted the cracks in a society that working families were already struggling in. We must save lives and provide the security people need.

As well as maintaining strong social distancing and mask policy, we must fully suspend evictions, foreclosures, and utility shutoffs. We need a state single-payer healthcare system and a state homes guarantee. We need progressive tax reform so the wealthy and well-connected are not paying a lower tax rate than people who are fighting to stay afloat. It’s time working people had representation in our government. I humbly ask for your vote.

- As neighborhood association chair, I managed dissemination of community and State policy information, coordinated guest speakers such as city officials and judicial candidates, facilitated group discussion and overseeing board elections.

Other Professional Experience
- As Precinct Committee Officer / BCAEMD law enforcement accountability and public servant oversight.

Other Professional Experience
- Seasonal Contractor for public and private schools. Worked for a non-profit. Currently own a business.

Community Service
- Interscholastic athletics coach. Citizen respondent for hearings.

Statement
- For years, I’ve worked to curb domestic violence and restore usurped natural rights. My judicial advocacy work with lawyers aims to alter crowded courtrooms. As an experienced contract negotiation, I’ll promote small business growth by tax restructuring. Owning a corporation, this solution will work. Addressing deficits, I’ll partner with Finance Committee AFR for small business tax abatement and we’ll still have resources to fund arts & public education. We can avoid state income tax.

This expanded health oversight leaves people susceptible to discrimination. My proposed legislation protects your privacy and right to equal and nondiscriminatory treatment.

Lauren Davis
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
- State Representative, 32nd District

Other Professional Experience
- As the founding Executive Director of the Washington Recovery Alliance, I’ve shaped public policy regarding mental health and addiction. At UW’s Forefront Suicide Prevention, I directed school programs. Previously, I worked in international development at the Gates Foundation and as a Fulbright Scholar in West Africa. I spent my early career as a Head Start preschool teacher and started a small business in Ghana to fund education for girls.

Education
- Brown University (Bachelor’s, Ethnic Studies)

Community Service
- Paul Member, King County Behavioral Health Advisory Board, Policy Committee, National Alliance on Mental Illness – Washington, directed adult English language learning program.

Statement
- As your Representative, I’ve successfully championed state Affordable Care Act protections, major investments in addiction treatment, landmark reforms to our criminal justice system and medical and dental access for our low income neighbors. When our behavioral health providers and bus drivers couldn’t access masks, I ensured these essential workers were protected. My focus going forward will be preserving public health and fighting for those hurt most by COVID—folks who’ve lost their jobs, seniors, undocumented families and small businesses.

Kelly M. Fox
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
- First time candidate.

Other Professional Experience
- Executive Director of Snohomish County EMS; Public service positions at Renton Fire & Emergency Services, Seattle Public Utilities / Seattle City Light, and the USO Puget Sound Area.

Education
- Master’s in Social Work, University of Washington; BA: Social Work, minor in Chemistry, University of Washington

Community Service
- South County Fire, CERT, Greater Seattle Business Alliance, Camp Ten Trees, 5th Avenue Theater, Pride Foundation, Northwest Network, Public Defenders Association, Seattle VA Medical Center, Seattle Mental Health

Statement
- In my position as the Executive Director of Snohomish County EMS, I have become increasingly concerned about the future of Emergency Medical Services in Snohomish County and Washington State. I am running for office to ensure that the people who live, work and play in Snohomish County will receive quality emergency medical services, no matter where they are in the county.

As taxpayers in Snohomish County, all funds we pay towards EMS Levies are given directly to the FireEMS department. There are some agencies that are well-funded and fully staffed, while others are strapped for cash and rely on volunteer staff. A countywide system that ensures all medical providers receive the proper training, case review and medical oversight, will guarantee that you’ll get the same level of emergency medical services on the Tulalip Indian Reservation as you do in downtown Everett.

There are political groups within the county who want to defund and remove countywide emergency medical services, to diminish its control. This is both costly and dangerous. As a member of the 38th Legislative District I want to know that my tax dollars are being used efficiently and effectively for everyone’s benefit.

Bernard Moody
(Prefers Republican Party)

Elected Experience
- Everyday worker and taxpayer, not a professional politician.

Other Professional Experience

Education
- Edgewater HS, Marine Corp Institute, Honolulu Community College Criminal Justice Course, CJTC Corrections Academy

Community Service
- Active member of my church. Father of 2, grandfather of 5 and great-grandfather of 1.

Statement
- I am running because Olympia needs to be reminded elected officials work for the people who elected them. When I talk with people, they say they are disappointed their representatives have forgotten their powers come from the people they are supposed to be serving... from the “consent of the governed.” Not just the ones that are in their party but all the peoples of the state.

As your Senator, I will work to implement the initiatives that you voted for, like the $30 car tabs. Instead of watching our taxes rise higher and faster than our ability to keep up with them, I will fight to lower them and slow them down. I will work to protect our retirement pensions from losing value and to make owning a home more affordable. And taxes are too damn high!

When Law Enforcement officers can’t speak out about injustices they see being inflicted upon the people they serve, and the people are being required to have the state’s permission to go to church, have peaceful assemblies or even go to work, sounds like tyrannical oppression more than Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. Help me fix this, vote for Bernard Moody.

June Robinson
(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience
Recently appointed to the State Senate following seven years as your State Representative. Legislative expertise in budget, housing, health, and issues impacting working families.

Other Professional Experience
Public Health Professional, Snohomish Health District and Public Health Seattle and King County; former Executive Director, Housing Consortium of Everett and Snohomish County; former Director of Planning and Program Management, Community Health Center of Snohomish County.

Education
Master of Public Health, University of Michigan, B.S., University of Delaware

Community Service
Board Member, Washington Low Income Housing Alliance; Commissioner, Salary Commission; Commissioner, Human Needs Committee, City of Everett; Volunteer, United Way of Snohomish County; Volunteer, Everett Public Schools

Statement
I will be an honor to build upon my record of service and leadership as your State Senator, especially as we recover from the health and economic disruptions we are all facing. With your vote I will continue to focus on healthy communities, affordable housing, and a budget that serves hard working families—not wealthy corporations.

As one of the only public health professionals in the legislature, I’ll make sure we rebuild our economy with safety and confidence, keep our kids in school while protecting the health of teachers and students, and support our nurses, doctors, and hospital workers. We must let science and common sense guide our policies.

In the House I developed expertise in our state budget. As your Senator, I’ll continue to reform our regressive tax system and close unfair loopholes to maintain education and job training investments, and fund effective homelessness, addiction, and mental health services. A longtime affordable housing advocate, I’ll fight for stable, quality homes for low wage workers, struggling families, and anyone at risk of losing shelter.

Endorsed by unions, teachers, nurses, and our Snohomish County neighbors, I look forward to working with you for a stronger future, and ask for your vote.

Statement
We need fundamental change and accountability from our elected officials. Large corporations control the time, attention and purse strings of our officials who then prioritize corporate interests over the interests of their constituents. I have listened to the promises of change for decades. Enough is enough! The pandemic has exposed the greed and corruption within our society. Lobbyists continue to defend a healthcare financing system that has produced one of the least healthy populations in the developed world at the most cost! Our system of capitalism and a free market economy has been undermined by politicians who allow it to be controlled by huge monopolies. That’s not what our founding fathers envisioned. Those corporations gloat as our health care is degraded and destroyed by their greed. It is time to turn back the clock. It starts at the state level, where elected officials are accountable to their constituents. I will fight against: mandatory comprehensive sex education, income tax, tolls. I will bring Washington back to its roots which requires balanced, unbiased reporting.

Statement
It was my honor to serve you these past three legislative sessions. My twenty-three year military career as a naval officer coupled with executive experience as a mayor has given me a unique perspective on leadership and working with others to accomplish mutual goals.

Growing up in rural Skagit County, I have a deep personal connection to our district and its people. I understand the importance of promoting our farms and businesses. As we rise to a post COVID-19 future, more than ever, we need people who reflect the values and needs of our rural communities and can provide steady, pragmatic leadership. We must get Washington back to work, ensure that gains made in behavioral health are maintained and that the government works to create jobs and entrepreneurial opportunities by reducing burdensome regulations. 2021 will prove to be a difficult legislative session as we work to find solutions to bring us out of a recession created by COVID-19. I will continue to work across the aisle to offer collaborative solutions. My priorities include reducing tax burdens, continuing to focus on transportation and infrastructure, ensuring decisions in education are kept at the local level and protecting your constitutional rights.

With the current situation in Olympia, it is imperative that we elect people that will be willing to make tough, but necessary choices to move this state back in the direction of growth and prosperity. I believe that one of the first things that should occur is to make Washington State more business friendly. Also, spending at the state level needs to be prioritized to benefit its tax paying citizens. As your representative, I will also work to address the traffic congestion issues that locally are causing a loss of time, undo stress, and a financial hardship for far too many.

Elected Experience
I have not previously run for public office.

Other Professional Experience
Special Education as a teacher, paraprofessional and substitute teacher.

Education
BSED in Special Education, University of Akron; Paralegal certificate from Edmonds Community College.

Community Service
I have volunteer experience with NYSHA, PTSA, Girl Scouts, PAWS and Mill Creek Food Bank. Beginning in 2007, I served a decade as a CASA for Snohomish County for children in the foster care system, receiving a Sonja C. Haines Service Award for outstanding service and advocacy for abused and neglected children in 2012. I am currently serving on the Equity and Diversity Committee for Northshore School District.

Statement
For over a decade I volunteered as a CASA for Snohomish County. I brought a voice to abused and neglected children through my independent investigations and court presentations. When program misbehavior hindered my ability to be an effective advocate, I worked with the administration and peers to identify and remedy the problems that arose. I learned good intentions have to be paired with accountability.

I would like to bring that investigative spirit and experience promoting others' wellbeing / creating environments for others to thrive to county council. The unprecedented situation facing Snohomish County requires flexible, solution-oriented thinking. Our public health, education, and economy are now dependent on putting the public's well-being first – and fast. I will make sure that allocations of money are driven by measurable outcomes designed to provide meaningful assistance to the most vulnerable. I will pair rapid response with a robust system of accountability to ensure public resources effectively support those in need.

As councilmember, I’d use CARES funds to support residents’ access to internet and equal services, I’d develop a robust system of accountability to ensure public resources effectively support those in need.

Outcomes designed to provide meaningful assistance to the most vulnerable. I will pair rapid response with a robust system of accountability to ensure public resources effectively support those in need.

Statement
I come from working class roots with experience building coalitions, effective communications, and bring budgetary and policy knowledge to represent our district. I intend to focus my efforts on the economic rebuilding of small businesses, supporting labor, and ensuring we can safely restart and rebuild our economy, schools, and recreation in a healthy and supported manner.

We have a greater opportunity to correct the current situation to create an equitable and just society while improving the quality of life in our region. I was born in Edmonds and have lived in Snohomish. N. King Counties for over half of my life. I have worked across borders for healthy communities and just economic policies that focus on serving the underserved and under-served as well as our planet. People crave authenticity and transparency to be listened to and see elected officials working hard for the people, not enriching and winning repeated elections. To support critical and essential workers, as well as families, we need a responsive government that can make tough decisions when necessary. We need comprehensive structural change to ensure recovery from this crisis with a massive course correction for a brighter future for generations to come.

Elected Experience
Serves on the Snohomish County Council and in the Washington State Legislature, supporting our schools, smart-environmental policy and green spaces, effective transportation planning, and small businesses in our community. Previously, he served on the Mill Creek City Council and Planning Commission.

Other Professional Experience
Before serving our community in elected office, Jared worked in finance locally. His wife is a public school teacher.

Education
Jared graduated from Jackson High School before earning degrees in International Studies and Business from the University of Washington Bothell.

Community Service
Snohomish Special Olympics volunteer, Everett Gospel Mission volunteer, Mill Creek Community Food Bank volunteer.

Statement
I am proud to serve my community on the Snohomish County Council. This County Council must focus on our growth, including transit-oriented development that will improve traffic and reduce pollution in our community, and managing growth so our government agencies can operate cost-effectively to keep taxes low.

I am running to give the people of Snohomish County an alternative to the divisive partisanship plaguing our government. For too long, rapid growth in our region was mismanaged, resulting in overcrowded schools, inflated property taxes and congested roads.

I am grateful that the relationships I cultivated during my years of service on the Mill Creek City Council and in the Washington State Legislature have helped me dive into issues facing our district at this critical time.

Statement
The PUD has done a great job of using non-fossil energy sources but needs to do a better job in the support of our local communities by providing broadband internet for darrington Arlington Stanwood and other under served areas in our territory. Since 2014 I have worked with the PUD in an effort to get it to provide the services but it’s clear that only an election will get these services to the communities that need them. Every candidate will say something like lower rates and more reliable service but we need to do better than that. we need to help our community work through this social distancing issue and make are businesses and communities stronger by doing so.

A licensed financial advisor, Rob started his own accounting, wealth management, and investment practice where he serves thousands of individuals and businesses all over the United States and has demonstrated a proven expertise in financial management.

Rob’s passion on giving back to the community. During his tenure on the Marysville City Council, Rob worked hard to promote fiscal responsibility and wise investments in infrastructure. Recognizing the unparalleled challenges faced by individual and business ratepayers, Rob knows that the PUD can best support economic recovery through the financial and customer services it provides ratepayers, the availability of infrastructure to attract businesses and family wage jobs to the Arlington-Marysville Cascade Industrial Center, balancing infrastructure expansion and maintenance needs, maintaining a fiscally responsible PUD by not raising rates, and ensuring sound policymaking decisions.

Rob’s military leadership, public service, and financial management experience make him uniquely qualified in these uncertain times.

Darrington School District No. 330 | Proposition No. 1

Explanatory Statement

Passage of Proposition 1 would allow the Darrington School District to supplement the remaining two years of the District's existing five-year educational programs and operation levy authorized by the voters at the April 2018 special election.

The collections from this levy will be deposited in the District's General Fund and used to meet the educational needs of students and pay operations of educational programs and operations that are not fully funded by the State of Washington, including expenses of teaching, student support, special education services, school nurses and counselors, textbooks and classroom supplies, student transportation, security, student activities (such as band, music, art, world languages and extracurricular activities), professional development and training, and other school operations.

The proposed two-year supplemental levy authorizes the collection of up to $510,000 in 2021 and $510,000 in 2022. The levy rate required to produce these amounts is estimated to be $1.09 per $1,000 of assessed value. The exact levy rate and amount to be collected may be adjusted based upon the limitations imposed by State law at the time of the levy. Exemptions may be available to certain homeowners. For more information, call Snohomish County Assessor at 425.388.3433 or Skagit County Assessor at 360.416.1780.

Argument Against

After repeated recruitment attempts, no volunteers against the ballot measure came forward to write a statement.

Everett School District No. 2 | Proposition No. 1

Explanatory Statement

Everett School District No. 2 seeks voter approval to sell $317,400,000 in bonds to finance STEM/vocational career pathways programs at each high school, upgrade HVAC and electrical systems, improve school safety/security, build elementary classroom additions, replace three aging elementary schools and modernize or upgrade classrooms and cafeterias at Cascade and Everett High Schools; issue $317,400,000 in general obligation bonds maturing within 20 years; and levy annual excess property tax levies to pay such bonds, as provided in Resolution No. 1230.

Should this proposition be:
- Approved
- Rejected

Argument Against

Don't fall for the cheap sales tactic of false urgency: this single election represents an irrevocable 21-year tax and interest (5% over a 22-year period). The proposed two-year supplemental levy authorizes the collection of up to $510,000 in 2021 and $510,000 in 2022. The levy rate required to produce these amounts is estimated to be $1.09 per $1,000 of assessed value. The exact levy rate and amount to be collected may be adjusted based upon the limitations imposed by State law at the time of the levy. Exemptions may be available to certain homeowners. For more information, call Snohomish County Assessor at 425.388.3433 or Skagit County Assessor at 360.416.1780.

The bond proposal before you was composed roughly one year ago under the assumption that we would continue to have a stable economy, heavy population growth, steady or rising property values, and ever-increasing enrollment. Then this past spring the Covid-19 pandemic struck us, and none of these assumptions are valid anymore.

At the time of this writing (5/15/2020), the economy is not stable. Businesses are taking a beating, with many smaller ones shutting down for good. Unemployment claims have already risen to the highest level in American history. People have good reason to worry whether they will be able to keep their homes at all, let alone pay new property taxes.

While economic growth formerly ensured a steady influx of newcomers into our expansive corner of the state, the new downturn could have the opposite effect, with families moving out to seek a lower cost of living. Enrollment may well drop accordingly.

The same tone-deaf school board that just this May voted out 3.5% salary raises for administrators is now asking our economically- adversely impacted taxpayers to take on debt that will end up costing a total of $471M (including interest) over a 22-year period.

The Everett SD area’s high taxes were already taxing people out of their homes prior to Covid-19.

We have assembled additional information for your review at www.SchoolBondProcCons.com.

Voters should reject this bond measure and tell the school district to come back with one better suited to these uncertain, less prosperous times.

Lakewood School District No. 306 | Proposition No. 1

Renewal Levy for Educational Programs and Operations

The Board of Directors of Lakewood School District No. 306 adopted Resolution No. 07-20 concerning a renewal levy for educational enrichment. This proposition would authorize the District to levy the following excess taxes to renew an expiring levy, on all taxable property within the District, to maintain and support the District’s educational programs and operations, which are not funded or not fully funded by the State, all as described in Resolution No. 07-20:

Table:

<td>$7,349,033</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Should this proposition be approved?

Yes

No

Argument in Favor

Dear Lakewood Community,

High-quality, safe, well-rounded schools are one of the most essential opportunities we can provide our children. For many people, a quality public education is the foundation they’ll use to build a better life for themselves and their families.

Even after the “McCleary Fix,” the State does not fully fund the cost of educating students. Schools rely on local levies to bridge the gap between what the State provides and what it actually costs to educate our children.

The school district’s existing levies are scheduled to expire at the end of this year. The school board has placed renewal measures on the ballot in August, and our kids are depending on us.

Proposition 1 is the Renewal EP&O levy. This levy covers programs and staffing like school nurses, resource officers, playground supervision, support staff for special needs students, athletic programs, band, drama, and facility and transportation maintenance. It is not a new tax.

Proposition 2 is now a Renewal Levy for Technology Improvements; previously planned facility projects will be postponed. If approved, the Technology Levy will continue to pay for the kinds of computer equipment, network expansion, staff technology training and electronic security upgrades that have proven to be so critical during this pandemic. This is not a new tax; in fact, it is significantly smaller than the levy it will replace.

These are not new taxes, and the district is being fiscally responsible. Vote Yes to maintain quality education for our community’s children.
