SMART requests public assistance in the shooting death of a Bothell Police Officer

Smart Incident #20-3

As Snohomish County Multiple Agency Response Team (SMART) detectives continue investigating the shooting incident that resulted in the death of Bothell Police Officer Jonathan Shoop, they are requesting anyone who witnessed, took video, or has information about the incident to contact the SMART Tip Line (425-262-2800) or by email (SMARTtipline@snoco.org).

Tipsters are asked to leave their name, contact information, and a brief description of the information they are providing so a case detective can make contact.

The original and updated releases of the incident can be located online.

The investigation is being conducted by the Snohomish County Multiple Agency Response Team \(SMART\). SMART is a team of investigators, evidence technicians, records specialist, and public information officers from various Snohomish County law enforcement agencies and Washington State Patrol, who respond to, and investigate, police use of force incidents. There are civilian community members that also serve on SMART per the Law Enforcement Training and Community Safety Act (LETSCA). When the SMART investigation is complete, results will be forwarded to the King County Prosecutor's Office for review.
