However, I also understand that my attendance will be required for trial, sentencing or other hearings on various motions which may be brought before the court. My waiver applies only to the trial confirmation hearing referenced above.
6. I have the right to a speedy trial. I am making a knowing, intelligent and voluntary waiver of my right to a speedy trial and have no objection to the court continuing my trial date. I agree that the time between my current trial date and the new trial date will be excluded under CrRLJ 3.3.
7. I do not intend to confirm my case for trial as currently scheduled. However, the court may deny a motion to continue and confirm the case for trial in which case I must appear ready for trial on the date indicated above.
8. By waiving my right to attend, the court will notify my attorney of any new court dates and it will be my responsibility to contact my attorney to obtain court dates at which my attendance is required, and a warrant for my arrest may issue if I fail to attend.
9. I have a continuing obligation to comply with all pretrial release conditions.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that I have read the foregoing Declaration and that the contents are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and information.
