Explanatory Statement

Edmonds School District No. 15 seeks voter approval of a supplemental school programs and operations levy that will be collected over four years, commencing in 2011. The levy will add to the District's school programs and operation levy that was approved on February 9, 2010.

The state budget and District budget for next year are supported by one-time federal funds. Given the uncertainty of funding, the supplemental levy may be needed just to operate District schools or address further state reductions. The supplemental school programs and operations levy will impose an excess property tax levy of approximately $0.31 per $1,000 of assessed valuation to provide $6.8 million to be levied in 2010 to be collected in 2011; an excess property tax levy of approximately $0.30 per $1,000 of assessed valuation to provide $7 million to be levied in 2011 to be collected in 2012; an excess property tax levy of approximately $0.31 per $1,000 of assessed valuation to provide $7.5 million to be levied in 2012 to be collected in 2013; and an excess property tax levy of approximately $0.30 per $1,000 of assessed valuation to provide $8 million to be levied in 2013 to be collected in 2014.
