

The Harvey Homestead

John Harvey, one of the County's first Commissioners, established his 169 acre homestead in Snohomish in 1860, one year before Snohomish County was created. In 1889 the family raised fruit, potatoes, cattle, chickens, sheep and horses. The main crops are now hay, corn and green feed. Harvey Airfield occupies part of the original homestead.

Owner: Kandace Harvey

Above: Historic Harvey home

Right: The barn at Harvey Airport

