

The Johnson Farm

Iver and Caroline Johnson bought their 166 acre homestead on Ebey Island in 1887. They cleared and diked the land to raise Jersey cattle, chickens, and swine and to grow hay, fruit and vegetables. The farm grew to over 400 acres. Until recently, Bob and Laura Johnson gave educational tours to families; now they run a u-pick produce operation.

Owners: Bob & Laura Johnson
Gailee Kerns

Above: The barn, built 1930
Right: Bringing in the hay, circa 1913

