

Thrudvang Farm (Williams Farms)

The arson destruction of his business in Norway prompted Nicholas Thomle to move to land S. of Stanwood with his wife and 6 children in 1890. They ran a dairy, sold lumber and raised oats. Now that the land has increased from the original 56 acres to 250, green peas and seed crops are the major products.

Owners: Bill, Erna and Rick Williams

Above: Altered original farmhouse (no longer part of farm)

Right: Thomle family in front of original farmhouse (directly behind standing people)

