

SNOHOMISH COUNTY, Wash. -- The county plans to reopen to the public on July 6th. In the meantime, some departments are available for in person appointments.

Here are the county departments and services that remain accessible to the public during the restriction of public access to the Administrative Buildings:

Snohomish County COVID-19 phoneline for Daily Updates 425-388-3944

Basic Health and Other Human Service Programs

- Health and Human Services will offer limited services by phone, e-mail, FAX and mail for Energy Assistance, Homeless Housing, Housing and Essential Needs, and Veterans Services
- The Medical Examiner's Office remains open.

Public Safety and Access to Criminal Justice System

- The Sheriff's Office will continue to respond to 911 calls and ensuring the jail provide a safe, secure and humane detention facility.
- District Court

Access to Snohomish County Public-Facing Services

- The Snohomish County Jail reception area will be closed. Attorneys will have access through Inmate Accounts with proper identification.
- The passenger terminal at Paine Field remains open.
- Public Records requests and services will be by appointment only

The following departments and/or services have limited access for the public. This information is being updated. Please refer to the individual department websites for more information:

- Assessor's Office
- Auditor's Office
- Carnegie Resource Center
- The Diversion Center is not accepting new clients.
- Finance

- All non-mandated fingerprinting services from the Sheriff's Office are suspended until further notice
- Hearing Examiner
- Human Resources
- Parks
- Performance Auditor
- Prosecuting Attorney
- Public Advocate
- Public Works – business will be conducted by phone or through email
- Sheriff's Office
- Snohomish Health District (except for certain off-site inspections)
- Superior Court
- Treasurer's Office

###