Evergreen State Fair Announces Fair Concerts for 2022

MONROE, Wash., April 22, 2022 – This year’s fair theme is “The Show Must Go On!” This idiom has a long history in the entertainment world and has been used to encourage performers. No matter what happens, a production supports each other, and the performance takes place for the audience to enjoy without them ever knowing the pitfalls or struggles that took place before the curtain rose. This could not be truer of our 113th Evergreen State Fair this year. If we learned anything from 2020 and 2021, it was that anything can happen and that we are able to keep moving forward. Therefore, as we move forward with this year’s fair, the dates are August 25-30, closed on August 31, and September 1-5, and we are excited to announce our Fair Grandstand Stage Concert Series:

Tuesday, August 30, will be a night to hear chart topping hit songs by Country Rock artist Gary LeVox of Rascal Flatts, such as “Life is a Highway,” “My Wish,” and “Bless the Broken Road.” After 20 years as a front man, Gary LeVox is now embarking on a solo chapter. In addition to singing the Rascal Flatts’ hits, he will be singing his new songs from his debut solo album.

Country artist Scotty McCreery performs on Thursday, September 1. It will be a night to hear hit songs like “You Time,” “Five More Minutes,” “See You Tonight,” and “This is It.” It has been a decade since Scotty McCreery burst onto the international stage with his impressive baritone and southern charm endearing him to fans around the world.

On Friday, September 2, Contemporary Christian artists, songwriters, and musicians Bethel Music will be performing their hits. Bethel Music’s songs were among the most played contemporary worship music in American churches in 2019, and their albums have reached the Billboard 200 multiple times. Bethel Music have many songs with tens of millions of views on YouTube, and two with over 100 million views. Their songs and albums have been among the most streamed and downloaded Christian music on Spotify and iTunes.

All shows will start at 7:30 p.m. Evergreen State Fair e-newsletter recipients receive access to tickets before they go on sale to the public.
