CAMPSITES

Snohomish County Parks satisfies a range of camping experiences through its 5 campgrounds. Each offers a variety of camping amenities as well as their own unique natural features, (be it woods, meadow, creek, river, lake, or sound).

Campsite-Types include: Standard non-utility (walk-in or drive-up), Utility (Electricity with water at the site or nearby), Premium (full-utility water, power and waste hook-ups), ADA compliant, and Water Trail. Nearly all have fire rings and picnic tables. Most campgrounds have shower facilities which are coin/token operated. If room allows, up to 2 tents or 1 RV and 1 tent, and as many as 8 campers may occupy a site.

Reservations during summer months are highly recommended. Unreserved sites are available for walk-up camping.

For beach front Water Trail camping contact a park ranger or call 360-652-7992 (Kayak Point) or 425-745-5111 (Meadowdale). Be prepared to leave a message with your daytime contact number.

YURTS

For a unique camping experience, leave the tent behind and spend a night in a yurt at River Meadows or Kayak Point Park.

Yurts are round dwellings either 16' or 20' in diameter with a canvas shell and hardwood/concrete floor. Depending on size and layout, yurts can sleep from 5-8. Yurts have screened windows, locking doors, heat, light, and electricity. Inside furnishings include bunks, futon, and coffee table (be sure to bring your own linen/sleeping bag and other camp gear). Outside you'll find your own fire ring and picnic table. Sorry, no pets allowed.

CABINS

Nestled among the tall evergreens in Flowing Lake Park's campground sit 4 tiny cabins.

Similar in size and amenities to the yurts, the cabins offer an alternative to folks who want to camp with just a little more convenience. Not too far from the beach, and not too far from the restrooms & showers, these cabins are just right. Cabins 3 & 4 are pet friendly!

Pet friendly and ADA accessible cabins available

VACATION HOME

Sitting high on a hill overlooking Puget Sound, Kayak County Park's Craftsman-style 3-bedroom "Kottage" makes for an ideal weekend get-away.

Creature comforts include Mission-style furnishings, pellet stove, and DVD w/flat panel display. In the kitchen: a range/oven, refrigerator, microwave, dishwasher, washer/dryer, and a full compliment of dining and cooking utensils.

The main floor sleeps 2 on the queen sleeper-sofa and 2 on the master bedroom queen. Kids will love the rustic, knotty pine paneled upstairs with three twin-sized beds built right into the wall! Outside you'll enjoy a covered porch, picnic table and fire ring. RV hookups are available should extra guests arrive. Weekly rates apply!
