Snohomish Health District Board of Health Passes Resolution in Support of District-County Integration

The Snohomish County Council is expected to vote June 8 to determine if integration moves forward.

EVERETT, Wash., May 31, 2022 – Today, the Snohomish Health District Board of Health unanimously passed a resolution supporting integration of the Health District and Snohomish County. The next step will be consideration of a motion by the Snohomish County Council on June 8, 2022. If the motion passes, it would formally begin the process of integration.

You can find the text of the resolution here. An agenda for the Snohomish County Council meeting will be available here once it is posted. Additional background is available in the memorandum from the County Executive here.
